Facts And Circumstances Test

Return Reference	Explanation
Schedule A, Part I, Line 11g, Column vi	Renown Health provides centralized management, control, oversight, and other support services for the supported organizations. Amounts reported here are for the allocation of the following services: Administration and payroll for all employees, information resource systems & support, purchasing and procurement of supplies, marketing and communication services, accounting, billing and collection services, insurance and legal services.
Schedule A, Part IV, Section A, Line 1	Two of the six supported organizations are listed by name in the governing documents: Renown Health Foundation and Renown Regional Medical Center. The remaining supported organizations have a historic and continuing relationship with Renown Health. Renown Health is the parent organization within the health system and provides centralized management, control, oversight, and other support services for the system. As the health system has grown, additional entities have been formed to carry out the overall tax-exempt purpose of making a genuine difference in the health and well-being of the people and communities the system serves. Renown Health controls all supported organizations through its power as the sole member to appoint and remove members of the governing body of each supported organization.
Schedule A, Part IV, Section A, Line 3b	Hometown Health Plan is tax-exempt under IRC Section 501(c)(4) and operates a health maintenance organization and health insurance services to commercial enrollees and to those eligible for Medicare through its Medicare Advantage plan Senior Care Plus. Hometown Health Plan has more than 15,000 members in its commercial HMO and more than 17,000 in its Medicare Advantage HMO. Hometown Health Plan satisfies the public support test under section 509(a)(2) by receiving payments for services from its tens-of-thousands of members and by keeping its overall investment income within the required limit. As such, Hometown Health Plan is reported as a 509(a)(2) tax-exempt organization in Schedule A, Part I, Line 11g, column (iii).
Schedule A, Part IV, Section A, Line 3c	Renown Health provides centralized management, control, oversight, and other support services to Hometown Health Plan. Renown Health is the sole member of Hometown Health Plan and through its power as the sole member it appoints and removes members of the governing body of Hometown Health Plan. Through this control and relationship, Renown Health ensures all support provided is used exclusively for charitable purposes.
Schedule A, Part IV, Section A, Line 6	Renown Health also provides centralized management, control, oversight, and other support services to various related for-profit subsidiaries within the health system. Provision of these services furthers the overall tax-exempt purpose of making a genuine difference in the health and well-being of the people and communities the system serves.
Schedule A, Part IV, Section D, Line 3	Renown Health is responsive to the needs and demands of its supported organizations. Each supported organization has officers and directors who also serve as officers and directors of Renown Health. Due to this close and continuous working relationship, the officers and directors of the supported organizations have the ability to influence Renown Health's decisions regarding the use of its income and assets.
Schedule A, Part IV, Section E, Line 3a	Renown Health controls all supported organizations through its power as the sole member to appoint and remove members of the governing body of each supported organization.
Schedule A, Part IV, Section E, Line 3b	Through its power as the sole member and through the continuous working relationship between the organizations, Renown Health exercises substantial direction over the policies, programs, and activities of each of its supported organizations. In addition, Renown Health reserves the authority to approve certain governance decisions of the supported organizations.

Return Reference	Explanation
Part X, Line 2	Renown Health is organized as a Nevada nonprofit entity and has been recognized by the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) as exempt from federal income taxes under Internal Revenue Code Section 501(c)(3). In addition, Renown Health is subject to income tax on net income derived from business activities that are unrelated to its tax exempt purpose. Renown Health files an Exempt Organization Business Income Tax Return (Form 990T) with the IRS to report any unrelated business taxable income. Renown Health believes that it has appropriate support for any tax positions taken affecting its annual filing requirements, and as such, does not have any uncertain tax positions that are material to the combined financial statements. Renown Health would recognize future accrued interest and penalties related to unrecognized tax benefits and liabilities in income tax expense if such interest and penalties are incurred. Renown Health's Federal Form 990T filings are no longer subject to federal tax examinations by tax authorities for years before 2012.

Return Reference	Explanation
Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 11	The Form 990 is prepared by the organization's tax department with support from a certified tax preparer. The form is reviewed by the organization's current CFO and current EVP and Chief Administrative Officer prior to the final Form 990 being sent to the board. The IRS Form 990, as filed with the IRS, is sent to each voting member of the Renown Health Board prior to filing. Along with the forms, the Renown Health board is provided with a narrative that explains the various parts of the Form and their content.

Return Reference	Explanation
Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 12c	On an annual basis at or prior to the first regular meeting following the election of new board members, the members of the Renown Health Board are given an Annual Disclosure Statement. They are expected to perform a reasonable investigation into their business, financial, family or significant personal relationships to disclose any actual or potential conflicts of interest. If, in connection with a proposed transaction or arrangement involving a Renown Health entity, a board member discovers that an actual or possible conflict of interest has arisen that was not disclosed on the Annual Statement, then the board member must disclose the existence and nature of his or her financial interests to the remaining directors that are considering the proposed transaction or arrangement in a timely manner. If a board member discloses an actual or possible conflict of interest, the board member shall leave the board or committee meeting while the remaining board members discuss the financial interest. The remaining board members shall vote upon and decide whether a conflict of interest actually exists. If the remaining board members determine that a conflict does exist, then appropriate measures are taken to ensure the issue is addressed.

Return Reference	Explanation
Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 15a	Renown Health's executive compensation, including compensation for the CEO and certain executives, is reviewed and approved by the Renown Health Executive Committee. All decisions are submitted for final ratification at the next scheduled board meeting. The discussion is documented in the Executive Committee minutes and Board minutes. The Executive Committee is comprised of members of the Renown Health Board of Directors unrelated to and not subject to the control or undue influence of executives, with no material financial interest in transactions of the Company or any other perceived or actual conflicts of interest. Total cash compensation for the organization's executives is targeted at competitive compensation levels, relative to market surveys of comparable healthcare organizations, based upon the level of performance required to achieve the targeted compensation levels. Base compensation and total cash compensation is reviewed at a minimum of every two years in comparison to the surveys for comparable businesses and responsibilities and adjusted as to maintain equity with the survey information. The Executive Committee undertook the process outlined above for the fiscal year 2015 executive compensation.
