Return Reference	Explanation
Schedule D, Part V, Line 4	Southwestern Law School's endowment fund primarily provides financial assistance in the form of scholarships to Southwestern law students. The endowment fund also provides Professorships for Southwestern faculty and supplemental operating income.
Schedule D, Part X, Line 2	The Law School is exempt from federal income taxes pursuant to Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code. The Law School has received a favorable determination letter from the Internal Revenue Service indicating that they qualify for tax-exempt status. The Law School is also exempt from California income taxes under the related State provisions. Management believes that the Law School will continue to be exempt from taxes. As of July 1, 2010, the Law School adopted accounting guidance related to uncertain tax positions. In accordance with this guidance, management is required to determine whether a tax position of the Law School is more likely than not to be sustained upon examination by the applicable taxing authority, including resolution of any related appeals or litigation processes, based on the technical merits of the position. The tax benefit to be recognized is measured as the largest amount of benefit that is greater than fifty percent likely of being realized upon ultimate settlement. Derecognition of a tax benefit previously recognized could result in the Law School recording a tax liability that would reduce net assets. The Law School has reviewed all significant tax positions for material tax jurisdictions including the U.S. federal and California state tax jurisdictions for which the statute of limitations remained open which is generally three years for federal and state taxes and four years for California. The open tax years are 2011 through 2015 for federal and 2010 through 2015 for California tax years and determined there were no material unrecognized tax benefits. However, the statute can be extended if there was a failure to file a necessary tax return. In addition, there have been no material changes in unrecognized benefits since July 1, 2014, nor are any anticipated in the 12 months following June 30, 2015. However, management's conclusions regarding this policy may be subject to review and adjustment at a later date based on factors including, but not limited to, on-going analyses of and changes to tax laws, regulations and interpretations thereof. There have been no related tax penalties or interest, which would be classified as operating or interest expense in the statement of operations.
Schedule D, Part XI, Line 4b	Financial statements include student financial aid of $7,928,861 as a reduction of revenue while the 990 records this amount as an expense.
Schedule D, Part XII, Line 4b	Financial statements include student financial aid of $7,928,861 as a reduction of revenue while the 990 records this amount as an expense.
