Part IV

Section B. Type I Supporting Organizations

	Yes	No
1 Did the directors, trustees, or membership of one or more supported organizations have the power to regularly appoint or elect at least a majority of the organization's directors or trustees at all times during the tax year? If "No," describe in Part VI how the supported organization(s) effectively operated, supervised, or controlled the organization's activities. If the organization had more than one supported organization, describe how the powers to appoint and/or remove directors or trustees were allocated among the supported organizations and what conditions or restrictions, if any, applied to such powers during the tax year.
2 Did the organization operate for the benefit of any supported organization other than the supported organization(s) that operated, supervised, or controlled the supporting organization? If "Yes," explain in Part VI how providing such benefit carried out the purposes of the supported organization(s) that operated, supervised or controlled the supporting organization.

Section C. Type II Supporting Organizations

	Yes	No
1 Were a majority of the organization's directors or trustees during the tax year also a majority of the directors or trustees of each of the organization's supported organization(s)? If "No," describe in Part VI how control or management of the supporting organization was vested in the same persons that controlled or managed the supported organization(s).

Section D. All Type III Supporting Organizations

	Yes	No
1 Did the organization provide to each of its supported organizations, by the last day of the fifth month of the organization's tax year, (1) a written notice describing the type and amount of support provided during the prior tax year, (2) a copy of the Form 990 that was most recently filed as of the date of notification, and (3) copies of the organization's governing documents in effect on the date of notification, to the extent not previously provided?
2 Were any of the organization's officers, directors, or trustees either (i) appointed or elected by the supported organization(s) or (ii) serving on the governing body of a supported organization? If "No," explain in Part VI how the organization maintained a close and continuous working relationship with the supported organization(s).
3 By reason of the relationship described in (2), did the organization's supported organizations have a significant voice in the organization's investment policies and in directing the use of the organization's income or assets at all times during the tax year? If "Yes," describe in Part VI the role the organization's supported organizations played in this regard.

Return Reference	Explanation
COLLECTIONS OF ART, HISTORICAL TREASURES, OR OTHER SIMILAR ASSETS	SCHEDULE D, PART III, LINE 1A WESTERN UNIVERSITY HAS RECEIVED DISNEY COLLECTIBLE ITEMS WHICH ARE MAINTAINED AT ONE OF THEIR CAMPUSES AS PUBLIC DISPLAY ITEMS
INTENDED USES OF ORGANIZATION'S ENDOWMENT FUNDS	SCHEDULE D, PART V, LINE 4 The investment objectives for the management of endowment assets are to manage contributions in a manner that will maximize the benefit intended by the donor, to produce current income to support the programs of the University, donor objectives, and to achieve growth of both principal value and income over time sufficient to preserve or increase the purchasing power of the assets, thus protecting the assets against inflation
FIN 48 (ASC 740) FOOTNOTE	Schedule D, Part X, Line 2 Under current accounting guidance related to uncertain tax positions, management is required to determine whether a tax position of the University is more likely than not to be sustained upon examination by the applicable taxing authority, including resolution of any related appeals or litigation processes, based on the technical merits of the position. The tax benefit to be recognized is measured as the largest amount of benefit that is greater than fifty percent likely of being realized upon ultimate settlement. Derecognition of a tax benefit previously recognized could result in the University recording a tax liability that would reduce net assets. The University has reviewed all significant tax positions for material tax jurisdictions including US federal, and California and Oregon state tax jurisdictions for which the statute of limitations remained open, which is generally three years for federal and four years for state. The open tax years also include tax years to the extent of net operating loss carry forwards, which add the tax years June 30, 2000 through June 30, 2010 for federal tax purposes and the years ended June 30, 2003 through June 30, 2009, for state tax purposes. The University determined there were no material unrecognized tax benefits in the open tax years. However, the statute can be extended if there was a failure to file a necessary tax return. In addition, there have been no material changes in unrecognized benefits since July 1, 2014, nor are any anticipated in the 12 months following June 30, 2015. However, management's conclusions regarding this policy may be subject to review and adjustment at a later date based on factors including, but not limited to, ongoing analyses of and changes to tax laws, regulations and interpretations thereof. There have been no related tax penalties or interest, which would be classified as operating or interest expense in the accompanying consolidated statement of activities and changes in net assets.

Monitoring and Enforcement of Written Conflict of Interest Policy	Form 990, Part VI, Section B, Line 12c The University monitors and enforces its conflict of interest policy on a continuous basis that involves consideration of all potential interested persons. A comprehensive review and discussion of the adopted policy is held annually with all university board of trustee members. At this meeting, the university's legal counsel reviews in detail the current policy to assure understanding and compliance with the disclosure process. Board members are required to submit necessary disclosure forms indicating whether a conflict exists, and if yes, all related details involving the potential conflict. An independent review of the disclosure forms is performed by the university's legal counsel, and if necessary, follow up requests for additional information is made. Throughout the year, at board of trustee meetings, the university's legal counsel monitors compliance by referencing the conflict of interest policy and communicates required steps to be taken in the event of a potential conflict of interest that may arise at any time. This process includes the university's officers as well. For key employees, meetings are held at the Dean's Council and operations group level that discuss the details of the conflict of interest policy and the necessary steps to be taken to disclose and report any potential conflicts. For potential transactions, agreements, and affiliations, etc. That may involve any university employee, a thorough review is conducted by university's legal counsel and other members of executive management. In the event of any potential conflict of interest exposure, required information is requested and reviewed on an independent basis. The interested person is excused from participating in any discussion or decisions that involve the outcome of any related transactions. In addition, during the employee orientation process, the university requires all new employees to review the conflict of interest policy and complete a conflict of interest disclosure form. If any potential conflicts of interests are disclosed, a complete review of information is completed by university's legal counsel to determine the nature, if any, of potential financial interests. If any conflict of interest is disclosed, then documentation is prepared outlining the nature of the conflict, discussions are held with those involved in the conflict, steps are taken to remove activities causing the conflict, and there is future follow up and monitoring of the potential conflict activity.
