Pennsylvania law encourages 501(c)(3) organizations to intervene in the lives of Pre-K, Elementary, and Secondary students who desire to attend a Christian school and who are at risk of receiving a deficient education with insufficient finances available to make desired adjustments. In 2014-15, 21 schools worked together to raise funds and distribute scholarship awards to 127 students with awards ranging from $30.00 to $2,100.00, depending upon the results of an independent, professional needs assessment process. Documentation of awards distributed is maintained in the Association office. An independent CPA reviews the financial records and procedures for each fiscal year to ensure compliance with Pennsylvania law, and his report is distributed to the Board, Scholarship Committee, donors, and the schools with scholarship-receiving children enrolled. At least 45 volunteers are involved with this program.

Delegates can access 100 workshops, general assembly periods, and educational exhibits in addition to exchanging ideas with their educational peers. Attendance by staff ranges from 450-525. Approximately 23 volunteers assist with pre-Conference details, registration, recording/duplicating of sessions, and transportation shuttle.

The KCEA Board appointed nine professional and business leaders to design and implement policies to not only surpass the requirements enacted by the Legislature of Pennsylvania (and Department guidelines) but to also fulfill our organizational mission. Five professional and business leaders currently comprise KCEA's Scholarship Committee to oversee the program, to ensure that established policies are followed, and to review the program in light of KCEA's organizational mission. Detailed reports are provided to the KCEA

Board and participating schools. An independent CPA annually reviews this program for programmatic compliance. An independent, professional need assessment company processes all applications. Awards are determined by the Committee based upon objective criteria without the knowledge of identifiable information, such as student name, school name, etc. Letters are sent to both the student/family and school telling of the financial details of awards. Checks are issued to the schools of the students' attendance after the school has verified data and enrollment. For the 2014-15 fiscal year, scholarship awards ranged from $30 to $2,100.
