Return Reference	Explanation
Schedule D, Part X, Line 2 FIN 48 (ASC 740) footnote	The Company accounts for uncertain tax positions in accordance with FASB ASC 740, "Income Taxes." FASB ASC 740 provides a framework for how companies should recognize, measure, present and disclose uncertain tax positions in their financial statements. The Company may recognize the tax benefit from an uncertain tax position only if it is more likely than not that the tax position will be sustained on examination by the taxing authorities, based on the technical merits of the position. The tax benefits recognized in the financial statements from such position are measured based on the largest benefit that has a greater than 50% likelihood of being realized upon ultimate settlement. The Company did not record any unrecognized tax benefits as of August 31, 2015 and 2014. The Company does not believe it is reasonably possible that its unrecognized tax benefits would materially change in the next twelve months. In the event the Company were to become subject to federal income taxes, the Company's policy would be to recognize interest and penalties related to income taxes as components of interest and penalties expense included within general and administrative expenses in the statements of comprehensive income. As of August 31, 2015 and 2014, the Company did not record any interest or penalties associated with unrecognized tax benefits. All tax years related to fiscal years 2011 and forward are open and subject to examination.
