Return Reference	Explanation
V 4	The endowment funds are held by a tax-exempt related organization, ABA Fund for Justice and Education FJE. ABA uses the proceeds from the endowment funds to provide a predictable stream of funding for ABA programs.
X 2	The ABA and FJE are qualified under the US Internal Revenue Code Code as tax-exempt organizations or, in the case of FJE, as a tax-exempt fund, and are exempt from tax on income related to their tax-exempt purposes under Section 501a of the Code. The ABA is exempt from income tax as an association described in Section 501c6 of the Code. FJE is exempt under Section 501c3.
X 1	ABA and other organizations do not have any material unrelated business income. Accordingly, no provision for income taxes has been made in the consolidated financial statements for the fiscal years ended August 31, 2015 and 2014.
XII 2d	Pension allocation for the Fund for Justice and Education FJE, the entire pension expense is paid by the American Bar Association and then allocated to the FJE.

Part IV

Supplemental Information. Provide the information required in Part I, line 2, Part III, column (b), and any other additional information.

Return Reference	Explanation
Part I Line 2	The FJE has recipient monitoring procedures in place to ensure adequate control of funds that are awarded. These procedures include the review of grantee financial and narrative reports, periodic on-site monitoring of grantee programs and financial operation, review of cash management procedures to minimize the cash on hand by recipients, and the review and appropriate follow-up on recipient audits including any deficiencies noted.
Part I Line 2	Grant recipients typically are selected in consultation with the funding agency.
Part I Line 2	The majority of the scholarships are paid directly to the colleges and universities that the award winners are attending. The remaining awards are paid as stipends to under-represented law students pursuing unpaid clerkships with judges. The stipends for clerkships are taxable to the grantee.

	Form 990, Part I, Section 4, Line b	On January 24th the Commission co-sponsored a free pro bono legal training and pro se application clinic on DACA Deferred Action for Childhood Arrivals in Los Angeles, CA The legal training, targeted towards attorneys and law students, offered an overview of DACA and instruction on the renewal process The workshop utilized attendees from the legal training to help pro se applicants filing for DACA renewal prepare applications The event was co-sponsored with the AILA Southern California Chapter, NALEO Education Fund, the Los Angeles Mayors Office, the UCLA School of Law, the US Immigration Law Group, World Relief Garden Grove, and CLINIC The Commission led a Detention Standards Implementation Initiative delegation to the Houston Processing Center on February 4th On this tour Commission Director Meredith Linsky, Staff Attorney Bob Lang, three Commission members and others spent five hours at this facility reviewing the facilities compliance with the 2011 detention standards After speaking with the facility staff and ICE officers, the group was permitted to speak with individual detainees and discuss daily compliance issues The Commission has issued a report from the visit to the Department of Homeland Security At the 2015 Midyear meeting the Board of Governors unanimously approved Resolution 113 presented by the Working Group on Unaccompanied Minor Immigrants and co-sponsored by the Commission This resolution calls for government appointed counsel for unaccompanied minors in all phases of their immigration proceedings and prohibits immigration judges from taking pleadings or evidence from an unaccompanied child who has not had a meaningful opportunity to discuss his or her legal options with a lawyer It also encourages training for state court judges in issuing predicate orders for immigrant youth as well as recommends specialized dockets to expedite these cases where the youth are close to aging out of the system This resolution allows the Commission and the Working Group to do further advocacy around this important issue During the Midyear Meeting the Commission received permission from the BOG to participate as a Steering Committee of the Committee for Immigration Reform Implementation CIRI CIRI is a network of national immigration groups originally created to advocate for generous rules and procedures for implementing immigration reform in order to achieve a just immigration system that treats immigrants with dignity and respect CIRI is dedicated to action surrounding the immigration-related Executive Order recently announced by President Obama The Commissions Mental Health Task Force MHTF has developed an ethics advisory titled Representing Detained Immigration Respondents of Diminished Capacity Ethical Challenges and Best Practices the advisory was prepared with the assistance of law students from the Ethics Bureau at Yale Law School as well as through the contributions of Commission members and staff The Commission sponsored a program entitled, Women and Children First Is Family Detention Really Justified and Necessary on July 31st in Chicago, IL The program addressed the legal and psychological effects of family detention, the legal justifications offered by the government and current alternatives that allow for a meaningful presentation of an asylum claim at a greatly reduced cost to the public The Commission sponsored a program entitled, Family Detention at a Crossroads Will the US Government Persist or Desist on September 16th in Los Angeles, CA The panel explored the protections under the 1997 Flores settlement and what the future holds for immigrant families and children The panel highlighted the report issued by the Commission, Family Immigration Detention Why the Past Cannot Be Prologue The report was developed by COI with the assistance of the law firm of OMelveny Myers LLP In October 2016, the Commission initiated a new project in Houston, Texas, called the Childrens Immigration Law Academy CILA This office of four staff members located in the South Texas College of Law is an expert legal resource center focusing on childrens immigration law cases in Texas Texas is home to one of the largest numbers of unaccompanied minors from Central American in the United States Legal service providers struggle to provide adequate services in an environment where there is no right to appointed counsel and high staff turnover rates CILA will work with pro bono lawyers and legal service providers throughout the state to provide regular trainings, an online library, individual technical assistance, Working Group meetings and advocacy on issues related to this vulnerable population The funding for the project was raised through the Texas Access to Justice Foundation and the Vera Institute of Justice Commission Special Advisor, Karen Grisez, visited ProBAR, one of the Commissions three border projects, to conduct a Additionally, the project continued to update resources and legislation on the Grandfamilies State Law and Policy Resource Center Website, www.grandfamilies.org. The Grandfamilies staff have conducted several trainings and provided technical assistance to assist many states with improving kinship policy and implementing the Kin Guardianship Assistance Program, and it will continue to do so in 2016. Center staff who worked on its Opening Doors for LGBTQ Youth in Foster Care Project has conducted training to improve outcomes and well-being for LGBTQ youth in foster care in South Boston, Virginia in 2015. Training is planned for Virginias judges in April 2016. The Centers Child and Adolescent Health Law Program continued its focus on child victims with disabilities, including a presentation on children with disabilities in court at the Centers 16th National Conference on Children and the Law and participation as a legal partner in the National Center on Criminal Justice and Disabilities. In addition, 11 articles written as part of an ABA Child Law Practice series were compiled and edited into a manuscript on access to justice for children with disabilities, suitable for publishing. Project staff also presented at a Capacity Building Collaborative webinar on Health Care Needs of Children and Youth in Foster Care in October 2015. The Centers Polyvictimization and Trauma-Informed Legal Advocacy project published the last four of eight articles for its Trauma Series for the ABA Child Law Practice monthly newsletter: Supporting the Mental Health of Trauma-Exposed Children in the Child Welfare System, Using Screening and Assessment Evidence of Trauma in Child Welfare Cases, Medical Aspects of Trauma: A Guide for Lawyers, and Understanding Secondary Trauma: A Guide for Lawyers Working with Child Victims. The CLP Trauma Series formed the basis for a training curriculum and an online continuing legal education tutorial on the Centers website.
