Section B. Type I Supporting Organizations

	Yes	No
1 Did the directors, trustees, or membership of one or more supported organizations have the power to regularly appoint or elect at least a majority of the organization's directors or trustees at all times during the tax year? If "No," describe in Part VI how the supported organization(s) effectively operated, supervised, or controlled the organization's activities. If the organization had more than one supported organization, describe how the powers to appoint and/or remove directors or trustees were allocated among the supported organizations and what conditions or restrictions, if any, applied to such powers during the tax year.
2 Did the organization operate for the benefit of any supported organization other than the supported organization(s) that operated, supervised, or controlled the supporting organization? If "Yes," explain in Part VI how providing such benefit carried out the purposes of the supported organization(s) that operated, supervised or controlled the supporting organization.

Section C. Type II Supporting Organizations

	Yes	No
1 Were a majority of the organization's directors or trustees during the tax year also a majority of the directors or trustees of each of the organization's supported organization(s)? If "No," describe in Part VI how control or management of the supporting organization was vested in the same persons that controlled or managed the supported organization(s).

Section D. All Type III Supporting Organizations

	Yes	No
1 Did the organization provide to each of its supported organizations, by the last day of the fifth month of the organization's tax year, (1) a written notice describing the type and amount of support provided during the prior tax year, (2) a copy of the Form 990 that was most recently filed as of the date of notification, and (3) copies of the organization's governing documents in effect on the date of notification, to the extent not previously provided?
2 Were any of the organization's officers, directors, or trustees either (i) appointed or elected by the supported organization(s) or (ii) serving on the governing body of a supported organization? If "No," explain in Part VI how the organization maintained a close and continuous working relationship with the supported organization(s).
3 By reason of the relationship described in (2), did the organization's supported organizations have a significant voice in the organization's investment policies and in directing the use of the organization's income or assets at all times during the tax year? If "Yes," describe in Part VI the role the organization's supported organizations played in this regard.

Part III, Line 9b	All patients of Weeks Medical Center who have no insurance are notified of the Weeks Health Access Financial Assistance policy and encouraged to make an appointment with one of our Financial Counselors or Social Workers. This information is given out, along with financial assistance applications, at the time of appointment and is also available on our web-site and is reiterated with our monthly statements sent to the patient. It is impossible for our organization to determine if a patient is eligible for financial assistance until an application is filed - we do not access credit reports but rely on the patient supplying us with the necessary financial information. At that time of application, if a patient is determined to be eligible, they are provided with free care.

Form and Line Reference	Explanation
Part VI, Line 4	Weeks Medical Center's general geographic catchment area consists of nine towns, which supply almost 90% of its patients. Towns include Lancaster, Groveton, Dalton, Whitefield, North Stratford, Jefferson and Stark, in New Hampshire, and Lunenburg, Guildhall and Gilman, in Vermont. Together, these towns have a population of approximately 13,000 and cover approximately 375 square miles in both Vermont and New Hampshire. Weeks Medical Center is defined by the geographic communities that surround its facilities and by the individuals and groups who benefit from the health and wellness services provided by its various health related institutions. The definition was developed by the Board of Trustees, its Committees, administrative and professional staff in the practical application of the services provided by the institutions and the identified needs of the communities served.
