Return Reference	Explanation
Part X, Line 2	The financial statement effects of a tax position taken or expected to be taken are recognized in the consolidated financial statements when it is more likely than not, based on the technical merits, that the position will be sustained upon examination. Interest and penalties, if any, are included in expenses in the consolidated statement of activities. As of September 30, 2015, FH Association has recorded approximately $819,000 as a liability for payroll taxes, including estimated penalties and interest, that are expected to be paid outside of the U S. There are no other uncertain tax positions that qualify for recognition or disclosure in the consolidated financial statements. FH Association files information tax returns in the U S and various states. FH is generally no longer subject to U S federal and state income tax examinations by tax authorities for years before 2011.

Form 990, Part I, Line 5, Part V, Line 2a, & Part IX, Lines 7-10	Most salary payments go to non-United States citizens, who are exempt from W-2/W-3 requirements. All United States citizen staff are compensated by a related organization, Food for the Hungry Inc. Food for the Hungry Inc. files all required payroll information returns as required by the IRS. As such, due to common paymaster rules as instructed by the IRS, the number of employees reported represent the number of U.S. employees who work for the filing organization but are compensated by a related organization. The amounts included in 990, Part IX, Lines 7-10 include the salaries and wages for both U.S. and foreign individuals.

Form 990, Part VI, Line 1a - Executive Committee	The Executive Committee of the board is comprised of four persons reflecting different constituencies of the whole board. All persons on the Executive Committee are members of the full board. No staff members are members of the Executive Committee. The Executive Committee may exercise the full authority of the board except for actions requiring a majority vote by the full board under California law, actions concerning board or committee membership, changes to the governing documents, any approval of self-dealing transactions, or changes to compensation of top staff or directors.

Return Reference	Explanation
Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 11	The Form 990 was prepared by an independent CPA firm and was reviewed by the Chief Financial Officer and Director of Finance to verify accuracy. The 990 was then emailed to the board of directors prior to being filed with the IRS.

Return Reference	Explanation
Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 12c	The conflict of interest policy covers top management and members of the board of directors. Individuals are required to sign conflict of interest statements on an annual basis. The corporate secretary reviews the signed statements and monitors transactions for potential conflicts of interest. If a conflict is determined to exist, interested parties are required to forego participation in the discussions and to abstain from voting.

Return Reference	Explanation
Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 15	FH Association does not compensate employees directly. Compensation is paid by Food for the Hungry, Inc, a related organization listed in Schedule R. Food for the Hungry Inc, in determining compensation to provide its corporate officers and key employees, references comparability data, including compensation provided to individuals holding similar positions at similar organizations. Independent members of the board of directors are responsible for determining appropriate compensation, and all deliberations and decisions are documented in the board minutes.
