Part IV Supplemental Information. Provide the information required in Part I, line 2, Part III, column (b), and any other additional information.

Line 1: The State of Minnesota allows only state licensed child care providers to participate in the USDA Child and Adult Care Food Program. Child Care Choices, Inc. enrolls child care providers into the USDA CACFP who have proof of license on file with the Minnesota Department of Human Services. Child Care Choices, Inc. is required to make periodic unannounced visits to providers' homes to verify that the providers' records are up to date, that food items served qualify for reimbursement, and that children claimed are present. Child Care Choices also contacts parents of children periodically to verify that their children were in child care with the providers who are on the program. If any providers' records are incomplete, or if a child cannot be verified to have been in a provider's care, then Child Care Choices, Inc. is required to reduce the amount paid on a current meal claim or recover the amount from a previous meal claim.

Line 2: Child Care Choices, Inc. provides child care financial assistance to low income families. These funds are provided by the United Way of Central Minnesota. The funds are to pay for a portion of a family's child care expenses not covered by the state child care assistance program.

Part III Grants and Other Assistance to Domestic Individuals. Complete if the organization answered "Yes" to Form 990, Part IV, line 22.
