The Chairperson of the Board reviews the statements of the Directors and the Vice Chairperson of the Board reviews the statement filed by the Chairperson. When a conflict arises the affected Director makes known the potential conflict, whether disclosed by written statement or not, and after answering any questions, will withdraw from the meeting for as long as the matter continues under discussion. Should the matter be brought to a vote, the affected Director will not vote on it. In the event the Director does not withdraw voluntarily, the Chairperson of the Board has authority to require the Director to remove himself from the room during both the discussion and vote on the matter. In the event the conflict of interest affects the Chairperson, the Vice Chairperson has authority to require the Chairperson remove himself in the same matter. If the matter is the item of business for which a special meeting of the Board was called, the affected Director will not be counted to establish a quorum, and he will not participate in the deliberations or vote on it.
