Part I, Line 1a	All spousal travel expenses paid by the organization must be approved by the CEO or CFO who determine whether the expense was for a necessary business purpose. Expenses incurred that are not determined to be necessary business expenses are taxable to the individual and included in their taxable compensation. The President of One Child Matters, Mark Pluimer, traveled to India for a short three day period and had business meetings upon arriving. Therefore, business first airfare tickets were purchased as a result of the short trip duration and the quick turn around from arrival to when the meetings began. In order to assist in promoting a healthy lifestyle for its employees, the organization reimburses employees half of their monthly health club dues up to a maximum of $40 per month. These amounts are reported as taxable compensation when reimbursed. Mark Pluimer received health club reimbursements during the year.
Part I, Line 7	The organization and related entities pay bonuses to their officers, directors, and key employees from time to time. The frequency and amount of the bonuses are determined by the administrative committee, CEO, or other management, and are based on factors such as overall job performance, substantial extra projects, etc. The organizations do not have any employment contracts which obligate the payment of bonuses in the future.
