WakeMed Property Services purchases, leases, and maintains properties in Wake and Johnston counties for the purpose of leasing or subleasing space to WakeMed and other medical providers to expand the accessibility of medical services in the vicinity. Property Services currently owns and maintains 20 properties (including land for future development), manages two properties owned by WakeMed and leases 28 properties. Multiple WakeMed departments and physician practices occupy the owned and leased space including four free-standing emergency departments, two outpatient rehabilitation departments, three mobile critical care ambulance departments, six outpatient imaging departments, and an outpatient physical therapy department. Currently there are 52 physicians' practices located in these buildings. A wide variety of care options are offered at each of these facilities and are designed by location and service to enhance care for all residents of the communities served. Most locations are leased in areas experiencing rapid growth with limited options for medical care, including primary care and specialists.
