Return Reference	Explanation
Part IV, Line 2b	The Foundation provides free legal representation to California's poor. In the scope of its mission, the organization collects and temporarily holds legal awards for litigants which are then disbursed accordingly.
Part V, Line 4	The general purpose of the Endowment Fund is to provide a reserve, the interest and dividends from which may be expended to support the mission of the Foundation.
Part X, Line 2	The Foundation is exempt from taxation under Internal Revenue Code Section 501(c)(3) and California Revenue and Taxation Code Section 23701d. Generally accepted accounting principles provide accounting and disclosure guidance about positions taken by an organization in its tax returns that might be uncertain. Management has considered its tax positions and believes that all of the positions taken by the Foundation in their federal and state exempt organization tax returns are more likely than not to be sustained upon examination. The Foundation's returns are subject to examination by federal and state taxing authorities, generally for three and four years, respectively, after they are filed.
