Return Reference	Explanation
Schedule D, Part V, Line 4	The endowment consists of permanently restricted funds that were established by two private foundations located in Pittsburgh, PA. The earnings on these funds are temporarily restricted to benefit and support the National Council of Juvenile and Family Court Judges in implementing research findings and developing new tools which will assist judges and courts serving the needs of children and families.
Schedule D, Part X, Line 2	The Organization is a nonprofit organization exempt from federal income taxes on income other than net unrelated business income under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code. No provision for federal or state income taxes is required for the year ended September 30, 2015, as the Organization had no taxable unrelated business income. The Organization follows the authoritative guidance ⁴ relating to accounting for uncertainty in income taxes included in Accounting Standards Codification (ASC) Topic Income Taxes. These provisions provide consistent guidance for the accounting for uncertainty in income taxes recognized in an entity's consolidated financial statements and prescribe a threshold of "more likely than not" for recognition and derecognition of tax positions taken or expected to be taken in a tax return. The Organization performed an evaluation of uncertain tax positions for the year ended September 30, 2015, and determined that there were no matters that would require recognition in the consolidated financial statements or that may have any effect on its tax-exempt status. As of September 30, 2015, the statute of limitations for tax years ended September 30, 2012 through September 30, 2014 remain open with the U.S. federal jurisdiction or the various states and local jurisdictions in which the Organization files tax returns. It is the Organization's policy to recognize interest and/or penalties related to uncertain tax positions, if any, in income tax expense.

Return Reference	Explanation
Schedule J, Part I, Line 3	The National Council of Juvenile and Family Court Judges Fund Inc (the Fund) has no employees. The compensation for the National Council of Juvenile and Family Court Judges' (NCJFCJ) CEO and the Fund Treasurer/Secretary is determined by the NCJFCJ President of the Board of Directors and is paid by the NCJFCJ. The President receives input on the amount of compensation from the Executive Committee and Directors. The Executive Director/CEO determines compensation for the senior management positions within the organization based upon an established compensation plan (the Executive Director/CEO is also covered under the compensation plan). Annually (every July at the annual conference), the Finance Committee reviews comparability data for all senior management positions and makes a presentation of the comparability data to the full Board of Directors in executive session. The Board then discusses the comparability data and makes a decision with a vote of the full Board of Directors as to the reasonableness of the organization's executive compensation. The deliberation is contemporaneously substantiated in the written minutes of the meeting.

Form 990, Part VI, Section A, Line 8b	There are no committees of the governing body

Return Reference	Explanation
Form 990, Part VI, Section B, Line 11b	The Chief Financial Officer (CFO) of the National Council of Juvenile and Family Court Judges (NCJFCJ) prepares a timeline for preparation and review of the Form 990 subsequent to the issuance of the audited financial reports. Also at that time, the CFO makes a presentation to the Board that addresses any changes that may have occurred in reporting requirements since the last filing, if any. The Form 990 is prepared based on the audited financial statements. Typically due to timing, an extension of time to file is needed to ensure a complete and accurate return. The return is prepared by the CFO and forwarded to the independent accountants for review. The Form 990 is then sent electronically to all members of the Board of Trustees for review and comment. Approximately a week is allotted for Board review prior to the filing of the return electronically.

Return Reference	Explanation
	Form 990, Part VI, Section B, Line 12c	Conflict of Interest Policy All NCJFCJ employees and Board members are required to complete a Conflict of Interest (COI) Training within 30 days of date of hire or joining the Board. Employees, officers, Board members, committee members and others are also responsible for reading the COI policy, signing the COI Policy Acknowledgment Form and Disclosure Form, and returning them as directed. These forms must be signed annually or as necessary. The purpose of the Conflict of Interest Policy is to protect the NCJFCJ's interest when it is contemplating entering into a transaction or arrangement that might benefit the private interest of an officer, staff member, committee member or director of the organization or might result in a possible excess benefit transaction. No Officer, Board of Directors member, committee member, director or employee of the NCJFCJ shall participate personally through decisions, approvals, disapprovals, recommendations, or other actions in any circumstance or particular matter involving the expenditure of grant or contract funds where, to his or her knowledge, he or she, his or her immediate family, business partners, or organizations other than the NCJFCJ in which he or she is serving as an officer, Director, partner, or employee, or any person or organization with whom the employee is negotiating or has any arrangement concerning prospective employment has an apparent or actual financial interest in the transaction. The CEO shall make the determination as to whether in any given situation recusal will be sufficient to mitigate the apparent or actual conflict of interest, or in the case of the CEO, such determinations will be made by the President of the NCJFCJ. In the case of an apparent or actual conflict of interest involving Officers, Directors, or committee members, such determinations will be made by the Audit Committee or NCJFCJ Conduct Committee, depending upon the nature of the conflict. In addition, in the use of grant or contract funds, interested persons should avoid even the appearance of Using his or her position for private gain, Giving preferential treatment to any person, Losing complete independence or impartiality, Making decisions outside normal administrative procedures, or, Adversely affecting the confidence of the public in the integrity of the NCJFCJ and its programs. The Audit Committee shall address all reported concerns or complaints regarding corporate accounting practices, internal controls or auditing, and shall be immediately notified of any such complaint. All individuals within the organization, including Officers, Board of Directors members, directors, employees, and committee members will be required to sign a Conflict of Interest Policy Acknowledgment Form and Disclosure Form annually and as required through the year. It is prohibited for relatives to occupy positions in which one supervises the other or is in a position to exert direct influence on the appointment (including temporary), promotion, transfer, pay or discipline of the other. For purposes of this rule, "relative" includes one's husband, wife, son, daughter, mother, father, brother, sister, brother-in-law, sister-in-law, son-in-law, daughter-in-law, mother-in-law, father-in-law, aunt, uncle, niece, nephew, stepparent, or stepchild, an individual residing in the same household as the employee, or an individual sharing a committed, personal relationship with an employee. The COI Policy defines interested persons, financial interests, and other interests. The Policy outlines procedures regarding duty to disclose, addressing a conflict of interest and violations of the COI Policy. Records shall be kept of all deliberations of the appropriate authority. The Policy states what shall be covered in the Acknowledgment Form and mandates periodic reviews. Adherence to the COI is monitored by the CEO's Office, Chief Administrative Officer and Chief Financial Officer. Human Resources is responsible for providing each new employee with the Conflict of Interest policy and forms and a timeline for returning the Acknowledgment and Disclosure forms to the Executive Assistant. Annual dissemination of the policy and forms is conducted for staff at the beginning of the calendar year, and for Board and Committee members after committee appointments are made by the NCJFCJ President, either July or August of each year. Periodically throughout the year, reminders are given, asking that new Disclosure forms be submitted if there is anything new to report since the individual last completed a Disclosure form. Receipt of the Acknowledgment and Disclosure forms are tracked by the Executive Assistant. Forms received by staff are then forwarded to Human Resources and maintained with personnel records. Forms received from Board and Committee members are maintained in the CAO's office. Follow up is done by staff, or referred to the Executive Committee to ensure that each Board member or staff, and relevant Committee member
