Aerospace's senior executives are highly experienced leaders in their technical fields with enormous accountability in performing this vital mission assurance role. Their compensation is reviewed and approved annually by the corporation's Board of Trustees, whose members include leaders with experience in government, the military, and private industry. The Compensation and Personnel Committee (the "Committee") of the Board of Trustees (the "Board") discharges the Board's responsibilities relating to compensation of the President and CEO, and other executive officers, including approving, individually, the compensation of each such officer. The Board of Trustees has established an annual bonus and incentive compensation plan for corporate officers and general managers based on corporate and individual goals established at the beginning of each fiscal year. At the end of each fiscal year, the Committee reviews corporate and individual performance and recommends to the Board the amount of bonus and incentive compensation, if any, to be paid for the prior year's performance. Bonus payments must be approved by the Board. These amounts are included in Bonus & incentive compensation on Schedule J, Part II, column (B)(ii). The Committee reviews the Board of Trustees compensation. The Committee meets not less frequently than twice each year to coincide with the annual and semiannual meetings of the Board and at other times to coincide with regular meetings of the board. The Committee may request that members of management or outside consultants and advisors of the Committee be present to assist the Committee in performing its duties. A written report of the actions taken at each meeting will be kept filed with the proceedings of the meetings of the full Board. The Committee process above was last undertaken for Fiscal Year 2015.
