Part IV Section D Line 3 Two of the supporting organizations five board members are members of the board of the supported organization. The supported organizations board chair serves as the board chair of the supporting organization, and he or she designates another supported organization board member to serve on the supporting organizations board. The supporting organization conducts regular board meetings every 6 months and has special meetings when necessary. At each regular meeting, there is significant discussion with input from all board members, including those also on the supported organizations board, regarding the supporting organizations investment policy, historical, recent, & forecasted investment performance, & upcoming near & future cash needs of the supported organization. At each regular meeting there is also significant discussion with input from all board members, including those also on the supported organizations board, and officers and staff of the supported organization regarding upcoming expenditures the supported organization needs to be funded in the near term and foreseeable future. The supporting organization agreed to use its assets for such purpose. The supported organization could not fund such capital expenditures without the supporting organization, and the failure to fund such expenditures would cause an interruption or significant degradation in the supported organizations planetarium activities. The attentiveness of the supported organization to the supporting organization is also evidenced by the fact that the amount of support provided by the supporting organization to the segment or department of the supported organization that consists of the sudekum planetarium is substantial relative to the planetariums total support. Also, the relationship between the supporting organization and the supported organization has existed for over 30 years, and the supporting organization has contributed more funds to the supported organization over time than any other donor. ☐
