Return Reference	Explanation
Part X FIN48 Footnote	NOTE 17- INCOME TAXESAccounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America require management to evaluate tax positions taken by the Hospital and recognize a tax liability if the organization has taken an uncertain position that more likely than not would be sustained upon examination by the Internal Revenue Service. Management has concluded that there are no uncertain tax positions taken or expected to be taken that would require recognition of a liability (or asset) or disclosure in the financial statements. The Hospital is subject to routine audits by taxing jurisdictions, however, there are currently no audits for any periods in progress. Hospital management believes it is no longer subject to income tax examinations for periods ending prior to November1, 2011.

Part VI - Patient Education of Eligibility for Assistance	Jennings American Legion Hospital is committed to patients first. As part of this commitment, Jennings American Legion Hospital's vision is to provide the highest quality healthcare at the lowest possible cost to all people in the hospital's service area. The hospital's charity care program supports patients who have demonstrated financial need and require medically necessary medical services. Jennings American Legion's Financial Counselor visits with all physicians on staff and keeps her business cards in their offices for patients that need assistance. On a daily basis the Financial Counselor runs reports of all private pay patients. She then visits all the private pay patients that are Inpatient to screen for assistance. For the patients that have been through outpatient departments, including the ER the Financial Counselor mails a financial assistance package. Follow-up phone calls are also made by the financial counselor to aide in return packets. The Financial Counselor obtains the following information to determine a patient's need for charity care: household income, family size, assets, and availability of alternative sources of payments. Finally, a thorough review is completed and the following services are provided: - Assist patients with a governmental assistance application when applicable - Help patients determine if a third party is liable - Provide medical services at reduced rates or at no cost - Provide individualized plans based on the patient's ability to pay - Use fair and consistent collection practices.
