Return Reference	Explanation
Part X, Line 2	In determining the recognition of uncertain tax positions, the Chamber applies a more-likely-than-not recognition threshold and determines the measurement of uncertain tax positions considering the amounts and probabilities of the outcomes that could be realized upon ultimate settlement with taxing authorities. As of December 31, 2015, the Chamber has no uncertain tax positions that qualify for either recognition or disclosure in the financial statements. The Chamber is generally subject to potential examination by taxing jurisdictions for the prior three years.

Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 15	The process for reviewing the salary of the Organization's President includes input from various sources including the Compensation Committee, comparability information obtained from independent compensation consultants, Form 990's of other Organizations and a compensation survey/study. The Chairman makes a recommendation to the Executive Committee in Executive Session, without the President present, and it is ratified or approved. The President receives a written contract which is negotiated between the President and the Compensation Committee, which consists of the Chairman, the Treasurer and General Counsel. The salary of the Organization's Executive Vice President is reviewed by the President as part of the annual performance review process. Compensation studies and benchmarking comparisons by independent compensation consultants have been utilized in formulation for the basis of the salary. This process was performed within the last three years.
