form 990 review process	Form 990, Part VI, Line 11b The Form 990 was prepared by an independent public accounting firm with information provided by management. The Form 990 is reviewed by the President and Current COO and presented to the Audit Committee for approval. Upon approval by the Audit Committee, the complete Form 990 is provided to all voting members of the board of directors with opportunity for questions, comments, or edits. Prior to filing with the Internal Revenue Service, Director comments are incorporated as appropriate and the final version of the 990, as it will ultimately be filed, is provided to each voting member.

Return Reference	Explanation
conflict of interest policy	Form 990, Part VI, Line 12c All Root Capital Board members and employees participate in an annual training on Root Capital's Code of Ethics, which includes a Conflict of Interest policy. Directors and Officers complete a Conflict of Interest disclosure form each year, which is reviewed by Root Capital's Governance, Risk Management & Compliance (GRC) team, and vetted with legal counsel if needed. If it is necessary to review or clear a conflict related to the current work or activity of Root Capital, that conflict is brought before the Governance Committee of the Board. If the Director with the conflict serves on the Governance Committee, s/he is recused from the conversation. The Governance Committee ensures that any business decision that could be affected by the particular conflict is considered objectively by the Root Capital team and is in the best interest of the organization. The Governance Committee's conversation and decision with respect to the conflict is recorded in the minutes of the meeting and shared with the whole Board in the subsequent quarterly Board Book. Lending personnel at Root Capital are trained on Root's Conflict of Interest policy in the course of its annual Code of Ethics (COE) workshops. Before these workshops, all of Root Capital's internal policies are shared with the participants and, after the training, participants are asked to sign an acknowledgement form attesting that they have read the policies and completed the training. To ensure that lending personnel are clear regarding what constitutes a conflict of interest, it is always the case that one of the COE vignettes used in the training focuses on a conflict of interest situation involving a credit decision. Those who do not attend the training in person are required to submit a written response to the COE vignettes by year end.
