Part XIII Supplemental Information (continued)

AFNPG has evaluated the positions taken on its tax returns for open years and those expected to be taken on its tax return for the year ended December 31, 2015. It is management's belief that such tax positions are more likely than not to be sustained upon examination by tax authorities. Accordingly, no liability for uncertain tax positions has been reflected in these financial statements. Returns for tax years beginning with those filed for the year ended December 31, 2012 are open to examination.

Part I, Line 2: The principal recipient of grants by the organization is the National Portrait Gallery in London, a world renowned publicly-supported art institution that recently celebrated its 150th anniversary (the "Gallery"). As the Gallery is well known to the organization by reason of their close working relationship and frequent contacts and because the Gallery's financial accounts are publicly available and thus readily available to the organization, the organization is able to monitor the use of its grants to the Gallery. In some instances the organization's grants to the Gallery are designated for a particular exhibition in the Gallery or to help in funding the acquisition of a particular portrait. In 2015 the organization granted art works owned by the Organization to the Gallery in order to enhance the Gallery's permanent collection. When grants by the organization to the Gallery are intended for general support of the Gallery's operations, the use of such grants by the Gallery is monitored by reviewing the Gallery's financial accounts
