Room to Grow is dedicated to enriching the lives of babies born into poverty throughout their critical first three years of development. Our unique three-year program aims to break the cycle of intergenerational poverty by providing families with one-on-one parenting education and support, essential baby items, and connections to vital community resources to ensure a healthy and secure start in life.

If "Yes," describe these new services on Schedule O

If "Yes," describe these changes on Schedule O

4 Describe the organization's program service accomplishments for each of its three largest program services, as measured by expenses. Section 501(c)(3) and 501(c)(4) organizations are required to report the amount of grants and allocations to others, the total expenses, and revenue, if any, for each program service reported.

Room to Grow achieves results in three critical domains: school readiness, social-emotional development, and health and wellness, all of which are important factors in the long-term success of children. 2015 accomplishments include: (1) Room to Grow parents are reading aloud to their children daily at twice the rate of their low-income peers, (2) 98% of Room to Grow families increased their confidence as parents and caretakers, and (3) over 90% of Room to Grow children are meeting their primary developmental benchmarks on time. The three-year retention rate for program participants is 85%. In 2015, Room to Grow provided over 4,000 hours of clinical support to 763 babies and their families. Over the course of the year, more than $550,000 worth of baby items were donated to Room to Grow and subsequently provided to families in need, including toys, baby equipment, clothing, and almost 20,000 books. Each donation of baby items was received and organized by over 4,000 dedicated volunteers, who contributed over 10,000 service hours.

Return Reference	Explanation
Grantmaker's Description of How Grants are Used	Parents visit Room to Grow every three months, starting at the mother's third trimester of pregnancy and then throughout the baby's first three years of life. At each visit, our social workers monitor the baby's developmental progress and help parents navigate the challenges and celebrate the joys of parenting. This includes helping parents understand their child's developmental stages, offering strategies to recognize and respond to their child's many needs, and providing resources and support to help cope with raising a child in typically stressful circumstances. At every visit parents also receive age-appropriate material necessities, allowing them to provide fully for their baby in an immediate and meaningful way.
