4a	(Code)	(Expenses $ 20,500,742	including grants of $ 153,301	(Revenue $)
Conflicts around the world have forced 65 million people to flee their homelands due to persecution harassment, threats, abduction, or torture -- because of the race, religion, nationality, sexual orientation or political opinion. Over and over we have seen that, despite these traumas, refugees are resilient and resourceful they find the way not just to survive but to thrive. But they cannot do it alone. HIAS is the only global Jewish organization whose mission is to assist refugees, whoever and wherever they are. Our work is generously supported by private contributors, the United Nations High Commissioner for Refugees (UNHCR), other United Nations entities, and the US Government. HIAS' International Program assists refugees in four regions of the world: Africa, Latin America, the Middle East, and Eurasia. Specifically, we have offices in Kenya, Uganda, Chad, Argentina, Ecuador, Panama, Venezuela, Austria, Ukraine, and Israel. Because refugees face long periods of time in a semi-permanent environment, unable to return home and not permanently resettled in a new country, their ability to become self-sufficient and to move beyond dependence on humanitarian aid is crucial. HIAS programs are designed to support self-sufficiency by focusing on: 1. legal protection and assistance to navigate the complexities of governmental requirements in order to live safely and securely as refugees while seeking resettlement, asylum or repatriation; 2. on psycho-social programs to address the fear, isolation and depression that can result from being forced from their homes and families, surviving or witnessing war and personal violence, and the daily stress of living on the margins in unfamiliar cities or camps; 3. and livelihood preparation by identification of opportunities for entrepreneurship, vocational training, and employment to help them regain dignity and control of their lives. As 2015 examples of HIAS international work programs in Chad provided training and assistance, including the distribution of food and maternal goods, activities to protect and respond to sexual and gender based violence (SGBV), and psychosocial support to the approximately 275,000 refugees residing in eleven camps. In Kenya and Uganda, HIAS provides psychosocial support including counseling and emergency food and housing assistance to over 1,000 survivors of sexual and gender based violence who fled more than half a dozen neighboring countries and would otherwise be invisible and even more vulnerable. In Latin America, HIAS case load grew to over 6,000 people. In Vienna, Austria HIAS works in partnership with the U.S. Department of State to operate the Resettlement Support Center ("RSC") to assist persecuted religious minorities from Iran who are seeking to resettle in America under the U.S. refugee admissions program. In 2015, HIAS assisted 1,899 Iranian religious minorities to arrive safely in the United States. In Israel, HIAS developed a pro bono legal representation project to serve asylum seekers in that country, training over 60 attorneys and providing legal consultations and assistance to over 130 asylum seekers. HIAS also awarded 53 scholarships to new Israeli immigrants ("OLIM"). In Ukraine, legal counseling was extended to over 2,000 asylum seekers, and monitoring and protection activities impacted the lives of hundreds of thousands of internally-displaced persons (IDPs) from the conflict zone in eastern Ukraine.

4b	(Code)	(Expenses $ 10,197,584	including grants of $ 7,038,212	(Revenue $ 1,905,559)
Refugee resettlement, advocacy and public engagement lie at the heart of HIAS work in the United States. As the oldest resettlement agency in the world and the only Jewish organization designated by the federal government to undertake this humanitarian work on behalf of all peoples, HIAS works to help refugees build stable lives in welcoming communities throughout the country. In doing so, our programs are intended to help newcomers overcome displacement and become productive citizens and to strengthen the fabric of American Society. In 2015 HIAS resettled 3,147 refugees. HIAS resettlement is accomplished in partnership with 21 local service organizations, funded by the US Department of State, private foundations and individual donors. Through contracted services, HIAS provides technical assistance and monitors this network of affiliated organizations related to resettlement activities provided during the first 30-90 days after arrival in the US including reception and placement by family reunification wherever possible or by identification of other supportive neighborhoods, travel arrangements and funding, securing housing and assuring necessities, counseling and case management, medical referral, initial language assistance, naturalization classes and applications for citizenship, asylum and other legal needs. Through two specially funded projects a preferred communities grant and the Prinz grant - HIAS can extend case management for up to five years if needed and emphasize legal assistance through representation for asylum seekers, who were professionals (scientists, scholars, artists, physicians, teachers, and others) and who desire to continue or rebuild their careers in the US.

4c	(Code)	(Expenses $ 1,706,738	including grants of $ 1,476,850	(Revenue $)
In addition, HIAS is funded through a matching grant program to support basic needs, case management and intensive employment services to certain refugees accepted in the network of affiliated organizations for up to six months after their arrival in the United States. The goal of this program is to enable participating refugees to become economically self-sufficient through employment before the end of this six-month period. Refugees are selected to participate in this program if they are deemed employable and likely to become employed in this short time frame. In 2015, 712 refugees completed the program, and 79% were self-sufficient six months after their arrival in the U.S.

Return Reference	Explanation
Intended Use of Endowment Funds	Schedule D, Part V, Line 4. Permanently restricted net assets are comprised of investments stipulated in the donor's agreement and are to be held in perpetuity. Use of appropriations from permanently restricted net assets are stipulated in the donor's agreement and may be used for scholarships or general expenditures. FIN 48 (ASC 740) FOOTNOTE SCHEDULE D, PART X, LINE 2. HIAS follows guidance that clarifies the accounting for uncertainty in income tax positions taken or expected to be taken in a tax return, including issues relating to consolidated financial statement recognition and measurement. This standard provides that the tax effects from an uncertain tax position can be recognized in the consolidated financial statements only if the position is "more-likely-than-not" to be sustained if the position were to be challenged by a taxing authority. The standard also provides guidance on measurement, classification, interest and penalties, and disclosure. Management believes there are no uncertain tax positions that would have an impact on the accompanying consolidated financial statements. The tax years ended 2012, 2013, 2014 and 2015 are still open to audit for both federal and state purposes.
