Part I, Line 2 (Cont') - Describe in Part IV the organization's procedures for monitoring the use of grant funds in the United States eligible applicants are reviewed by an independent Selection Committee. The Selection Committee selects recipients each year based on the applicant's academic merit and commitment to excellence. The Selection Committee evaluates each eligible applicant's academic record, accomplishments, plans for the future and other information provided in their application. No applicant may receive the scholarship more than once. Further, no scholarships are awarded to relatives of any member of the Selection Committee, or any officer or director of the Organization or Atria. Once awarded, the scholarships will not be terminated as a result of the employee terminating employment with Atria. Scholarship recipients are required to maintain a greater than 2.5 GPA and be academically in good standing. Recipients are required to provide periodic transcripts to verify compliance with the academic requirements
