Grantmaker's Description of How Grants are Used	The organization provided noncash assistance in the form of books and meals, as well as school supplies, bookbags, toys and other miscellaneous low-cost items for approximately 600 local students. All noncash contributions were limited in their use, so monitoring of the grantees was not deemed necessary. Students are selected by Wake County schools for the opportunity to participate in Read And Feed's programs, where they may earn the items provided by the organization.
