Allocations were made to the Fanconi Anemia Research Fund and to Memorial Sloan Kettering Hospital to support medical, scientific and treatment research of Fanconi anemia and its related cancers. $171,208 was allocated to fund research entitled Correcting Fanconi Anemia by CRISPR/Cas9 Genome Editing a Novel Therapeutic Strategy. A recent breakthrough in the technology called "gene editing" has provided the ability to efficiently mend mutations in Fanconi anemia genes in patient's own cells. This technology, called "CRISP/Cas9", enables the prevention of bone marrow failure in FA patients by autologous bone marrow transplantation with FA-corrected cells. It is believed that CRISP/Cas9 gene editing has great potential to provide clinical solutions, in particular for FA patients without matching donors. The research in this proposal will answer key questions about gene editing in FA-deficient cells as a first essential step towards the clinical translation of this technology to treat FA patients. The technology generated from this project could be used to correct mutated genes from a variety of different diseases, including cancer. $2,182 was allocated for Camp Sunshine scholarships. Camp Sunshine provides respite, support, joy, and hope to children with life-threatening illnesses and their immediate families from around the world through the various stages of their journeys. During Fanconi anemia week at Camp, families find support and encouragement from others affected by this disease. In addition there are in-depth seminars presented by a wide range of FA specialists presenting information on the most current therapies and advancements. The presenters remain available to families for individual questions and consults. $5,000 was allocated to the Young Adult Fanconi Anemia Meeting. The participants heard presentations from foremost experts on Fanconi Anemia 101. The meeting included support group sessions for adults with FA, their parents, partners and spouses, and opportunities for oral cancer screenings and FA research studies.

Part IV

Section B. Type I Supporting Organizations

	Yes	No
1 Did the directors, trustees, or membership of one or more supported organizations have the power to regularly appoint or elect at least a majority of the organization's directors or trustees at all times during the tax year? If "No," describe in Part VI how the supported organization(s) effectively operated, supervised, or controlled the organization's activities. If the organization had more than one supported organization, describe how the powers to appoint and/or remove directors or trustees were allocated among the supported organizations and what conditions or restrictions, if any, applied to such powers during the tax year.
2 Did the organization operate for the benefit of any supported organization other than the supported organization(s) that operated, supervised, or controlled the supporting organization? If "Yes," explain in Part VI how providing such benefit carried out the purposes of the supported organization(s) that operated, supervised or controlled the supporting organization.

Section C. Type II Supporting Organizations

	Yes	No
1 Were a majority of the organization's directors or trustees during the tax year also a majority of the directors or trustees of each of the organization's supported organization(s)? If "No," describe in Part VI how control or management of the supporting organization was vested in the same persons that controlled or managed the supported organization(s).

Section D. All Type III Supporting Organizations

	Yes	No
1 Did the organization provide to each of its supported organizations, by the last day of the fifth month of the organization's tax year, (1) a written notice describing the type and amount of support provided during the prior tax year, (2) a copy of the Form 990 that was most recently filed as of the date of notification, and (3) copies of the organization's governing documents in effect on the date of notification, to the extent not previously provided?
2 Were any of the organization's officers, directors, or trustees either (i) appointed or elected by the supported organization(s) or (ii) serving on the governing body of a supported organization? If "No," explain in Part VI how the organization maintained a close and continuous working relationship with the supported organization(s).
3 By reason of the relationship described in (2), did the organization's supported organizations have a significant voice in the organization's investment policies and in directing the use of the organization's income or assets at all times during the tax year? If "Yes," describe in Part VI the role the organization's supported organizations played in this regard.

Section E. Type III Functionally-Integrated Supporting Organizations

1 Check the box next to the method that the organization used to satisfy the Integral Part Test during the year (see instructions) a ☐ The organization satisfied the Activities Test. Complete line 2 below. b ☐ The organization is the parent of each of its supported organizations. Complete line 3 below. c ☐ The organization supported a governmental entity. Describe in Part VI how you supported a government entity (see instructions).
2 Activities Test. Answer (a) and (b) below.
a Did substantially all of the organization's activities during the tax year directly further the exempt purposes of the supported organization(s) to which the organization was responsive? If "Yes," then in Part VI identify those supported organizations and explain how these activities directly furthered their exempt purposes, how the organization was responsive to those supported organizations, and how the organization determined that these activities constituted substantially all of its activities.
b Did the activities described in (a) constitute activities that, but for the organization's involvement, one or more of the organization's supported organization(s) would have been engaged in? If "Yes," explain in Part VI the reasons for the organization's position that its supported organization(s) would have engaged in these activities but for the organization's involvement.
3 Parent of Supported Organizations. Answer (a) and (b) below.
a Did the organization have the power to regularly appoint or elect a majority of the officers, directors, or trustees of each of the supported organizations? Provide details in Part VI.
b Did the organization exercise a substantial degree of direction over the policies, programs and activities of each of its supported organizations? If "Yes," describe in Part VI the role played by the organization in this regard.
