Other Addl Info In 2015, Able Flight awarded a total of eight scholarships to people with physical disabilities, including five to wounded and/or disabled veterans.

Able Flight scholarships for 2015 included six for flight training (all recipients were successful in earning their FAA issued pilot certificates), and two for aviation career training. The flight training students attended Able Flight's annual joint training program with Purdue University's Department of Aviation Technology. The flight training scholarships covered all expenses including flight school and ground school, travel and lodging, books, manuals and testing fees.

In 2015, through attendance at four major aviation events, Able Flight provided mentoring and information resources for people with physical disabilities interested in entering aviation either as pilots or to seek aviation careers.

Able Flight maintains a regularly updated website www.ableflight.org, publishes a monthly newsletter, and uses social media and digital media for outreach to potential scholarship candidates.
