Name of the organization Employer identification number College of Workers Compensation Lawyers, Inc. 208237940 Part III - Statement of Program Service Accomplishments The College of Workers Compensation Lawyers, Inc. was incorporated in the state of Tennessee as a non-profit corporation on January 15, 2007 to recognize outstanding practitioners of workers compensation laws with the understanding that "Workers Compensation is a very important field of law, if not the most important. It touches more lives than any other field of law. It involves the payment of huge sums of money. The welfare of human beings, the success of business and the pocketbooks of consumers are affected by it." (Judge E.R. Mills, Singletary vs. Maugham Construction, 418 So. 2d 1138 (Fla.1st DCA 1982). The qualifications for election are: Candidates must have been in the field of Workers Compensation Law for at least 20 years and have proven to their peers, the bar, bench and public that they possess the highest professional qualifications and ethical standards; the highest level of character, integrity, professional expertise and leadership; commitment to fostering and furthering the objective of the College; sustained exceptional high quality professional services to clients, bar, bench and public; and significant evidence of scholarship, teaching, lecturing and/or distinguished public writing on Workers Compensation or related fields of law. In addition to the traits described above, a Fellow is expected to display the following traits in the day-to-day practice of law. The list below is by no means complete, but it ir provided to Sponsors and Candidates for their guidance in determining whether a candidate meets the expectations for a Fellow. A Fellow is an individual who: Would stand out to newer attorneys as a model of professionalism in deportment and advocacy; a person who should be emulated; Has earned the respect of the bench, opposing counsel and the legal community; Displays civility in an adversarial relationship; Avoids allowing ideological differences to affect civility in negotiations, litigation and other aspects of law practice; Demonstrates an active interesting resolving issues;
