Form 990, Part VI, Section B, Line 11b	The Director of Finance and CFO review ed the return and then provided it to an independent accounting firm for their review as well. The return was made available to the Board members via a shared intranet website. At the Board meeting preceding the filing date, questions were entertained by management. There are several days after the Board meeting where members can also review the return and ask questions prior to the filing date.

Return Reference	Explanation
Form 990, Part VI, Section B, Line 12c	Board members, officers and key employees complete conflict of interest disclosure statements annually and the statements are reviewed by the Audit Committee and General Counsel. The Audit Committee and General Counsel are responsible for monitoring compliance and follow-up with any potential conflicts, including developing a conflicts of interest management plan that identifies each conflict and potential conflict and how it will be addressed. In addition, each Board member, officer or key employee with a conflict or potential conflict receives a letter outlining how the conflict will be addressed.

Return Reference	Explanation
Form 990, Part VI, Section B, Line 15	Executive compensation at Thompson is established by the compensation committee of the Board of Directors. The committee uses an independent company to gather comparable data in determining compensation levels for the President/CEO and Senior level executives. The full Board of Directors is surveyed by the compensation committee on executive performance, this is considered in determining compensation levels. The compensation committee is also involved in goal setting for the CEO, which ties back to his performance reviews and incentive compensation rates. The year in which this process was last undertaken for each person was 2015.
