Also complete this part for any additional information. (See instructions.)

Part II Line 10: We had one major contributor, Mrs. Elaine Kligerman, who contributed $102,078 as shares of common stock.

Part II Line 17a: The NBS Classical Music Institute maintains a continuous and bona fide program for solicitation of funds from the general public and community. This is accomplished by the giving of numerous public concerts throughout the year at which contributions are solicited. In addition, each year, a national classical music performance competition is held which produces revenue from (1) contributions of attendees, (2) fees from the competitors, and (3) ads in the programs. The first of these qualifies as public contributions, reported on Line 1 of Part II. For the past four years, because of general economic conditions, we did not hold the competition. This has resulted in a decrease in Line 1.

We also participate in a township monthly Friday night tour of the business community, called "First Friday", for which we hold a concert. We are able to solicit contributions from the public that may not normally attend our other concerts.

Our general public contributions, outside of these special events, has also fallen over the past several years, we believe. The competitive environment for contributions to the arts has also intensified. With an improving economy, we expect to see our contributions from the general public increase as well. This year there has been a small increase in these public contributions as reflected in Line 6 of Part II and in the increased percentage of Line 14 over Line 15. In 2016 we have a new source of public contribution that will further increase our percentage.
