All tax forms, check register and yearly income summary in detail are mailed to each member of the executive council prior to filing. A vote is called and taken to approve via group and individual e-mail, as the volunteer officers and executive council members are spread nationally and internationally. At the yearly summer meeting hard copies are distributed to all executive council members, the year is reviewed, and copies are made available to all members.

A portion of investment income is to satisfy government expectations and regulations regarding funding lifetime memberships.

Documents of the Lepidopterists' Society are kept with the treasurer, Kelly Richers, for seven years. Older documents, and supporting documents are kept at the McGuire Center, University of Florida, under the direction of Charles Covell in the Society archives.
