The Historic Natchez Foundation's mission is to foster, encourage, and engage in the preservation, restoration, and development of historic or important sites, buildings, and personal property, in every way deemed to be feasible, including acquisition of buildings, sites, and other property for preservation and restoration and establishment of a revolving fund for this purpose.

2 Did the organization undertake any significant program services during the year which were not listed on the prior Form 990 or 990-EZ? Yes No
If "Yes," describe these new services on Schedule O.

3 Did the organization cease conducting, or make significant changes in how it conducts, any program services? Yes No
If "Yes," describe these changes on Schedule O.

4 Describe the organization's program service accomplishments for each of its three largest program services, as measured by expenses. Section 501(c)(3) and 501(c)(4) organizations are required to report the amount of grants and allocations to others, the total expenses, and revenue, if any, for each program service reported.

4a (Code:) (Expenses $ 109,156 including grants of $) (Revenue $ 33,888)
EDUCATION-Information related to Natchez regional history, genealogy, architecture, and decorative arts is provided on a daily basis to local citizens, governmental and other organizations, visitors, scholars, writers, genealogists, historical associations, museums, filmmakers, and others. The staff lectures about Natchez, general history, historic preservation, architecture, landscape, gardens, and decorative arts to local citizens, local and visiting organizations, and to tourists from out of town. The staff arranges visits and the Foundation opens its headquarters five days a week, on weekends with special programming, or by request. The Foundation also displays exhibits related to the themes previously cited. The Foundation operates a reproduction licensing program, which raises public awareness of the historical significance of Natchez and provides impetus for cataloguing the city's decorative arts. The Foundation allows other non-profit organizations and governmental entities to use the facilities of the Foundation's headquarters in the Natchez Institute at no charge for meetings and educational programming. In 2015, staff members continued to invest time in writing text and providing images to the City of Natchez for a "Museum of Streets" project which began in 2009 in conjunction with a walking trails project. In 2015, the Foundation also mounted an exhibit of historic Civil Rights photographs by Jim Lucas.

4b (Code:) (Expenses $ 131,849 including grants of $ 3,500) (Revenue $ 11,372)
PRESERVATION-The Foundation works to preserve endangered buildings and sometimes acquires properties and places easements on the property. The Foundation owned four properties at the beginning and end of 2015. The Foundation administers two funds dedicated to preservation and restoration activities-the Masterson Fund and the Whatley Fund. The Foundation serves in an advisory capacity to the Natchez Preservation Commission and works with the city to insure that public and private projects meet historic preservation guidelines. On a daily basis, the Foundation advises and assists architects, contractors, developers, craftsmen, organizations, and the general public on proper preservation and restoration methodology and on the design of new buildings to make them compatible within a historic context. The Foundation also assists citizens, accountants, lawyers, bankers, and developers on local, state, and federal issues and benefits related to the acquisition, development, and ownership of historic properties.

4c (Code:) (Expenses $ 29,916 including grants of $) (Revenue $ 1,576)
COLLECTIONS-(Foundation Archives, Artifacts, and Public Records)-The Foundation has a significant collection of important archival material, museum artifacts, and public records related to the history of the Natchez region. The Foundation's collections include books, photographs, documents, site files, subject files, artifacts, and public courthouse records. The archives and public records are made available on a daily basis to the public under the supervision of the Foundation staff. The Foundation maintains a research library with books and reference material on Natchez and regional history, Mississippi history, historic preservation, architecture, and decorative arts. The Adams County Board of Supervisors has entrusted the Foundation with the care and management of public courthouse records dating to the 18th, 19th, and 20th centuries. The county began locating circuit court records to the Foundation headquarters in 1992, and the program expanded in 2008 to include Chancery Court records. The county provides a small amount of funding for records management. The Foundation has sponsored a program in conjunction with universities and the National Park Service to preserve and catalogue these valuable historic documents. Staff members continually process the courthouse records to preserve them and to build a comprehensive computer database to make them more accessible to the public.

Part XIII Supplemental Information.

Provide the descriptions required for Part II, lines 3, 5, and 9; Part III, lines 1a and 4; Part IV, lines 1b and 2b; Part V, line 4; Part X, line 2; Part XI, lines 2d and 4b; and Part XII, lines 2d and 4b. Also complete this part to provide any additional information.

Part II, line 9 The Historic Natchez Foundation has never received a qualified conservation contribution. The easements held by the Foundation were placed by the Foundation on historic properties owned by the Foundation before their resale. Since none of the Foundation's existing easements were received as contributions, the Foundation has never reported the easements that it holds in its revenue or expense statement.

Part III, line 1 B (ii) The amount in this line represents collections and acquisitions that were valued and listed individually before the Historic Natchez Foundation became a more collections-focused organization and elected under SFAS 116 (ASC958) not to report, in its revenue statement and balance sheet, works of art, etc., held for public exhibition, education, or research, etc.

Part III, line 4 From its inception in 1974, and as referenced in its mission statement, the Historic Natchez Foundation is charged "to do all in its power to foster, encourage, and engage in the preservation, restoration, and development of historic or important buildings, sites, and personal property." The Historic Natchez Foundation initially focused most of its attention on buildings, but expanded to personal property in creating a significant archival collection in the 1990s and 2000s and is increasingly becoming more focused on museum and exhibit development.

Part I, 22 - Historic Natchez Foundation reports the number of contributions as the number of collections contributed and not the number of items.

Part I, 33 - Following accepted museum and archival practices and recommendations of professional organizations like the American Association of State and Local History and the American Association of Museums, the Historic Natchez Foundation elected in 2009 not to capitalize its collections (SFAS-116) unless an item was acquired specifically for re-sale to produce income for the organization's charitable works. Prior to making this change in 2009, the Foundation capitalized some collections, which continue to be reflected on Schedule D, Part VIII.
