THE RICHARD E CAPRI FOUNDATION

Edward L. Wolf President

General Information and Mission

The Richard E. Capri Foundation was established in 2008 in Suffolk County, New York by Richard E. Capri, a local businessman and philanthropist.

Management of the Foundation was entrusted to his closest friend and confidant, Edward L. Wolf, who currently manages the Foundation's interests.

The interests and focus of the original donor were diverse, encompassing education, the arts, health and medical research, and the assistance of the sick, needy and disadvantaged.

Under the stewardship of Edward L. Wolf and the trustees, the Foundation continues in this broad spirit, honoring the donor's varied range of interests, while constantly changing and reaching out in new directions.

Funding Priorities and Restrictions

The funding goals of the Foundation will constantly evolve to meet the needs and concerns of our society, allowing us to remain as flexible as possible in these challenging and rapidly changing times, while still remaining true to Richard E. Capri's intent. We currently concentrate on health, (including research into chronic diseases, and assistance and prevention for sufferers of cancer, leukemia, and other debilitating diseases), education and literacy, access to educational and job opportunities for the mentally handicapped and economically disadvantaged and aiding the homeless population in our communities.. We occasionally make grants to art and cultural institutions. The organizations we support tend to be concentrated in the New York City/Metro area. However, the only geographical limitation on a potential grantee is that it reside within the United States (the Foundation cannot make grants to foreign organizations.)
We only consider nonprofit organizations classified as tax exempt under Section 501 (c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code (IRC) public charities. We do not make grants to individuals, or to organizations that engage in lobbying activities as defined by the Internal Revenue Service. We are willing to make grants for general operating expenses, research, and project support. Only with rare exceptions will we make more than one grant to a particular organization during any calendar year.

On average, our grants tend to range in size from $2,000-$25,000. In extraordinary circumstances, a grant may be larger (up to $100,000.) However, grants of this size tend to be very infrequent.

Application Process

In general, we do not fund unsolicited proposals. However, if you feel that your organization may fit our funding profile, you are invited to send a brief (two page maximum) letter describing the following:

-Your organization, mission, services provided, and experience in the field
-A brief description of your proposal (how you intend to use the grant money and how it fits into your organization's priorities)

-The amount and terms of your grant request

-The contact information of your organization, and someone we can speak to about your proposal.

If we approve your letter of inquiry, you will move to the second stage at which time we will request a full application be completed for funding.

There is no deadline for an application. The officers meet throughout the year to evaluate organizations and proposals. Please bear in mind; however, that we will not consider more than one grant to any organization in a calendar year and any future grants are always subject to a re-evaluation process and approval of the officers. We will try out best to respond to your request as soon as possible, usually within a few weeks of receiving information.

Grant Reporting and Renewals

Grantees are expected to submit a report within six to eight months after receipt of a grant from the Foundation. At this time we have no formal grant reporting form, so an organization can use its own form, or send a brief one to two page letter if desired. As stated above, grants are not automatically renewed. The officers reconsider renewals every calendar year with each new grant.

THE RICHARD E CAPRI FOUNDATION

Edward L. Wolf President

APPLICATION FOR FUNDING FROM

THE RICHARD E. CAPRI FOUNDATION

1) Cover Letter (one page)

Provide a clear, concise overview of the organization, purpose and reason for and amount of the funding request. Be sure to show how your proposal furthers the grant maker's mission, goals and matches the finder's grant application guidelines. Cover Letters should be typed on letterhead.
Also called an executive summary, this case statement and proposal summary is the most important component of your proposal. Summarize all of the key information and convince the grant maker to consider your proposal for funding. Introduce your proposal, present a clear, concise summary of, and the visual framework for, the proposed project/program, and include: Applicant contact information, purpose of the funding request, need/problem, objectives, methods, total project cost, amount requested

2) Needs Assessment (Problem Statement) (3-4 Pages)

Objectively address specific situation, opportunity, problem, issue, need, and the community your proposal addresses. Support your statement with qualified third-party research/evidence to justify the need or problem. Clearly and concisely demonstrate that a relevant, compelling problem or need exists, and include the following:

a. Description of target population.

b. Definition of community problem to be addressed and service area need.

3) Program Goals and Objectives (1-2 pages)

Describe the outcome of the grant in measurable terms, in a succinct description of the proposed project outcome and accomplishments, including your overall goal(s); specific objectives or ways in which you will meet the goal(s). Program Goals and Objectives should include:

a. Minimum of one goal for each problem or need in the problem or statement.
b. Description of the benefiting population.

330 Motor Parkway • Suite 202 • Hauppauge, New York 11788
Tel: (631) 273-4429 • Fax: (631) 273-4451

c. Performance - the action that occurs within a specific time frame at an expected proficiency.
d. Process - the method by which the action will occur.
e. Product - the tangible results from the action's performance and process.

4) Methodology (4 + Pages)

Describe the process to be used to achieve the outcome and accomplishments, in a rational, direct, chronological description of the proposed project; actions that will accomplish your objectives; impact of your proposed activities, how they will benefit the community and who will carry out the activities; time frame for your project/program; long-term strategies for maintaining the on-going project/program. Methodology should include:

a. Restatement of problems and objectives.
b. Clear description and explanation of program/project scope and activities.
c. Sequence of activities, staffing, clients and client selection.
d. Time line of activities.

5) Evaluation (1-2 Pages)

Determine the plan for meeting performance and producing the program/project and justify how you will measure the effectiveness of your activities, who will be involved in evaluating and how they will be used; your measured criteria to produce a successful project/program; the expected outcome/achievement at the end of funding period. Evaluations should include:

a. Plan for evaluating accomplishment of objectives.
b. Plan for modifying process and methodology.
c. Provide methods - criteria, data, instruments, analysis.

6) Budget

Clearly delineate costs to be met by the grantee and all other funding sources; outline both administrative and program costs.

For specific projects, include separate budgets for the general operating and the special project. Show income and expenses in columnar form (according to general accounting/bookkeeping principles).

Delineate personnel costs for salary and fringe benefit information, and other-than-personal-services (OTPS) expenses for facility operating (rent/mortgage, utilities, maintenance, taxes), and travel, postage, equipment costs, supplies, and insurance, etc.

List actual committed and pending sources of income only. Include fees for service, government funds, corporate/private grants, individual donations, etc.

Prepare a detailed budget consistent with the proposal narrative:

a. Include project costs to be incurred at the time of the program's implementation.
b. Include no miscellaneous or contingency categories, include all items requested for funding, and all items to be paid by other sources, consultants.
c. Detail fringe benefits separately from salaries, detail all OTPS costs.
d. List separately all donated services, including volunteers, indirect costs where appropriate.
e. Sufficiently justify performance of the tasks described in the narrative.

7) Qualifications (1-2 pages)

Describe applicant, qualifications for funding and establish credibility. Demonstrate the means and methodology to solve the problem, or meet the need, within 12-15 months, and include the following:

a. Organization identity and purpose, constituents and service area. Brief summary of organization history, mission and goals.
b. Brief description of organization current programs, activities, service statistics, and strengths/accomplishments. Long-range goals and current programs/projects and activities.
c. Evidence and support (including qualified third-party statistics) of accomplishments.
d. Number of board members, full time paid staff, part-time paid staff, and volunteers. Evidence of Board involvement, activity and key staff members' qualifications and administrative competence.

8) Conclusion (1/2 page)

Present a brief, concise summary of your proposal that states your case, problem, solution and sources/uses of project/program funds.

9) Appendices

Additional attachments are usually required at the grantee's discretion. Typical appendices generally include:

a. Verification of tax-exempt status (IRS determination letter).
b. Certificate of Incorporation and By-Laws.
c. Listing of officers and Board of Directors.
d. Financial statements for last three (3) completed fiscal years (audited, preferred).
e. Current general operating budget and special project budget (if applicable).
f. List of clients served (if appropriate).
g. List of other current funding sources and uses.
h. Biographies of key personnel or resumes (only if requested).
i. Support letters or endorsements (limited number).
j. Commitment letters from project/program consultants or subcontractors (if applicable).
k. Diagrams for equipment or schematics for building requests (if applicable).

All grant money shall only be used for the specific purpose for which application is made. Failure to do so may result in the withholding or recovery of grant moneys.

Grantee is responsible for making a final written report to the Foundation including an accounting indicating how the grant money was used.
