Each of these organizations have developed or are currently developing programs targeting specific complex healthcare situations with innovative and promising programs. The Foundation awarded $10,000 each to: (1) NeuroHope, an organization dedicated to bettering the lives of individuals living with spinal cord injury, brain injury or stroke, (2) Energy Krazed, a non-profit organization developing fun, relevant, educational and interactive programs that empower teens to take charge of their minds, bodies and ultimately, their futures, and (3) Evolution of U, an organization integrating functional medicine, integrative nutrition, and yoga therapy into a program that assists in participants discovering their best self.

Part VI, Line 11b - The completed 990 form is emailed to all officers and directors of the Foundation prior to submission.

Part VI, Line 12c - Monitoring is done by asking board members to sign the conflict of interest policy and report any changes. Periodically, board members are asked if they have any new conflicts they need to report. Many board members sit on other boards of directors and express that they understand the importance of this policy. Board members have recused themselves any and every time they feel there is an issue that could be a conflict for them.
