Part VI 2: Several years ago the spouses of the board members asked to be added in order for diversity and inclusion. All members vote independently and spouses have not always voted the same

Part VI 7b The board meets with all active groups to discuss finances, policy, and changes. This is an open meeting and if people not on the board have objections to new programs (or discontinuing ineffective ones), the items are discussed and a path forward is either approved or rejected at that time.

Part VI 8: Meeting minutes are kept in the office.

Part VI 11a/b: This year the taxes were reviewed through email and emailed response. This was due to the CFO being in grad school and not getting them done in time to schedule a full board meeting. All board members responded with an approval and the taxes were mailed.

Part VI B. 12, 13, 14. We have not needed to develop a conflict of interest, whistle blower, or written records retention policy because we have no paid staff and the CFO does not have access to spend money. The CFO, CEO and a board member discuss all transactions that do not follow normal protocol to ensure they are legitimate DGW charges. This year we realized that someone was charging our account for non-DGW activities. A thorough investigation yielded that someone not related to the ministry was using our banking codes. We closed that account and established a new one and all charges were reversed by the bank. The total amount was $1,909 and that amount was deposited back by the bank once the investigation was completed. Our non-written records retention policy is 7 years and we have not reached that timeframe yet. All records are stored at Dalton's Greater Works and electronic scans are retained by the CFO.

Part VI C. 19: Upon request, copies of documents (except donor lists) are provided. Greater Works also compiles an annual report that is mailed to the top donors, all churches and non-profits that contribute to the organization. This is also provided with the copies of documents as listed above. The annual report includes: cash flow, statement of functional expenses, statement of financial position, planning budget for upcoming year, and explanations about what services are provided, how many people received assistance, and organizational needs.

Part VII Robert Hill (President/CEO) handles calls and direct assistance. Erwin Lankford (Vice President/Assistant CEO) drives the bus to pickup and drop off on Sundays and Tuesdays and provides other assistance as needed. Paul Porter (Board Member) handles money and other assistance as needed. Emily Cooper (Treasurer/CFO) handles the books and taxes and deals with legal and procedural matters. No person at Greater Works gets paid, everyone is a volunteer. We have a dedicated staff of volunteers that run the Clothing Closet, Food Pantry, Outreach Services, and work with dedicated volunteer groups to provide meals, medical assistance, and the other services we provide. All of us work full-time jobs and still make time for this ministry because we believe in what it stands for - God's unconditional love - and what it does - help take care of those in the community that need a little help.
