Introduction

Welcome to The Newell Rubbermaid Foundation.

Scaling Proven Solutions

When innovative and successful programs are brought to scale, effective organizations can provide more communities with solutions to their educational challenges.

- Strategic Growth Development Plans
- Infrastructure Support and Expansion
- Program Expansion Pilot Programs
- Program Evaluations

Application Guidelines

Global in nature, the Foundation provides grants to U.S.-based educational organizations that maintain a current 501(c)(3) status and to internationally-based educational organizations that maintain their country's equivalent of non-governmental status. Please note, while we may consider other locations, priority is given to organizations in locations in which Newell Rubbermaid operates.

We support organizations whose primary mission and/or purpose is to advance the education and workforce preparedness among underserved populations.

What We Fund:

The Newell Rubbermaid Foundation has three primary areas of support:

- We support educational organizations that provide access and tools for youth and young adults to succeed in life.
- We support organizations to achieve more by supporting and strengthening the management skills and practices of local nonprofit staff and board leaders, and by providing opportunities for ongoing learning and improvement.
- We are interested in identifying, funding and scaling the best solutions to educational issues affecting the communities where we live, learn, work and play. To meet that challenge, we invest in organizations that have demonstrated potential to achieve scale.

The Newell Rubbermaid Foundation is focused on innovative, educational organizations. The Newell Rubbermaid Foundation defines an "educational organization" as a charitable organization whose primary purpose or mission is to advance the education and workforce preparedness among underserved populations.

The Foundation is interested in educational organizations with at least a two-year, track-record for success and who also maintain:

- A charitable mission and demonstrated leadership in the community
- A well-organized, inclusive and active board of directors
- Capable and skilled management and staff
- Sound fiscal policies and practices with reliable and diverse revenue streams
- High quality and relevant programs
- Clear communication and ability to track and document its success

Eligible Organizations

- US-based, education organizations that maintain a current 501(c)(3) status or internationally-based, education organizations their country's equivalent of non-governmental status.
- Organization's mission and/or primary purpose is to advance the education and workforce preparedness among underserved populations.
- Emphasis is placed on organizations located in communities where Newell Rubbermaid operates

Ineligible Requests

- Individuals or for profit entities
- Organizations whose most recent audit shows an accumulated deficit.
- Organizations with political or legislative influence or that promote a particular ideological point-of-view.
- Fraternal or social organizations or those with a limited constituency.
- Parent-teacher associations (PTA) / parent-teacher organizations (PTO) unless they are national in scope
- Athletic teams, cheerleading squads, academic teams & booster clubs and other sports-related events and sponsorships.

- Political organizations and those having the primary purpose of influencing legislation of/or promoting a particular ideological point-of-view.

- Organizations which propagate any religious doctrine, benefit only its members or adherents, or exclude others.

Grants may support non-religious activities sponsored by religious based organizations provided that it benefits and is open to the broader community.

- Organizations that discriminate on the basis of age, race, gender, religion, national origin, sexual orientation, disability, or other classification protected by Newell Rubbermaid policy or local laws.

Special Instructions

Please provide a clear and concise description of your program or area for which you request funding. We are most interested in understanding how this fulfills a community need and how specifically, Newell Rubbermaid's funds will be used to address the issue. If there is a unique or innovative methodology to your work and impact, please include that as well.

Please also download our Foundation Primer document below for information on our foundation and download the Program Budget document, fill it out and then upload and attach it to the application on the Program Document page.

Introduction

Welcome to The Newell Rubbermaid Foundation. Before completing your application, please read our attached Foundation primer that describes our funding guidelines and eligibility instructions.

Ready for School, Ready to Learn, Ready for Work

By providing educational and professional development for youth and adults, we help to bridge educational inequities and to support individual and community success.

Example strategies can include :

- Providing early childhood support for school success.
- Preparing youth in grades K-12 for educational success and college readiness.
- Providing professional development, tools and skill building for career success.
- Comprehensive training to launch, sustain or grow a micro-enterprise or small business
