EIN: 30-0713937

Software ID: 15000352

Software Version: v1.00

Explanation: The truth: The were a lot of financial difficulties this year. One can see that our revenue was some 40,000 below the previous year and therefore there was less help available to do the work of what is a still new and complex organization. The filing was due during the high season of the Orchestra's performance schedule of concerts and touring. Those endeavors, the reason for the organization existence were done and accomplished well. With less available help, this important filing was accidently missed and is now submitted late. We are sorry for that and will apportion time more appropriately to make sure the 990 filing is done in a timely manner.

Return Reference	Explanation
Form 990, Part VI, Section B, Line 15	In 2013, neither Executive Director nor the Music Director positions compensated. In 2013, a fee was set by the Executive Committee for the Executive Director. In 2014 a fee was set for the Music Director. The Executive Committee did consider compensation of similar positions through advertised job ads including those advertising through the American Symphony Orchestra league, New York Foundation for the Arts, Chronicle of Education among others. The compensation was much greater than the Orchestra could afford at the time. The key person of the committee had been a College President for over 25 years. Finally, with her experience of hiring in non-profit environments, an agreement was reached. In fact, in neither 2014 nor 2015 was the compensation agreed upon actually fully dispersed because of budgetary restraints.
