Form and Line Reference	Explanation
Part I, Line 6a	The organization provides an annual community benefit report that is made available to the public

Form and Line Reference	Explanation
Part I, Line 7	Charity care is calculated using a cost to charge ratio following the methodology of Worksheet 2 Medical costs are calculated using a cost accounting system that addresses all patient segments Community health improvement services are calculated on the basis of direct expenditures Health professions education is calculated based on the Medicare cost report Subsidized health services is calculated based on the non-Medicare, Medicaid and charity care proportion of departmental losses for the specific programs Cash and in-kind contributions are calculated on the basis of direct expenditures

Form and Line Reference	Explanation
Part I, Line 7g	Subsidized health services represent the non-needs based and non-Medicare program losses of services the hospital offers

Form and Line Reference	Explanation
Part III, Line 4	A cost to charge ratio was used to determine the amount reported in Part III, Line 2. An industry average was used to compute the amount on Line 3. Discounts and payments on patient accounts reduce bad debt expense. No portion of bad debt expense is reported as community benefit. Text of footnote describing bad debt expense is as follows: "Based on historical experience, a significant portion of the Network's uninsured patients will be unable or unwilling to pay for the services provided. Thus, the Network records a significant provision for bad debts related to uninsured patients in the period the services are provided."

Form and Line Reference	Explanation
Part III, Line 8	The costing methodology used to determine Medicare costs is the Medicare cost report Medicare costs have not been included in community benefit in Part I

Form and Line Reference	Explanation
Part III, Line 9b	Financial counselors work out a payment program for any amount due after the Charity Sliding Scale Discounts are applied. Collection procedures consistent with self-pay accounts are applied to these balances.

Form and Line Reference	Explanation
Part VI, Line 2	Kettering Medical Center, as part of Kettering Health Network, has dedicated an entire department to community health and wellness. Return Reference	Explanation
Part I, Line 3	Compensation is established by a related organization. The process of determining compensation of CEO's, executive directors, officers, and key employees is to have an independent board approve the compensation. The compensation is determined to be reasonable compared to independent comparability data. The approval of the amounts is documented in the Board minutes within the appropriate time frame. At year end the organization reviews executive compensation by comparing the amounts approved to the amounts paid.
Part I, Line 4b	The Network has a Supplemental Executive Retirement Plan available only to a certain class of management.
Part II, Col Biii	Column Biii includes compensation reported on the W-2 that may or may not have gone through the current year Statement of Operations and Changes in Net Assets.
