Return Reference	Explanation
Sch I, Part I, Line 2, Procedures for monitoring grant funds	Grants are paid on a reimbursement basis. Grant recipients submit detailed expenditure and programmatic reports either quarterly or monthly, depending upon the amount of funds. After the reports and supporting documentation of expenditures are reviewed by the Quality improvement coordinator and approved by the Director of Client Services, a request for payment is then submitted to accounting for payment and approval. All approved grant funds must be used during the grant year. At mid-year, all grants are assessed for progress toward meeting their goals, and follow-up is done with individual agencies. All grant recipients are required to submit with their grant application their annual independent audit. They are also required to submit their subsequent independent audit for review for the granting period.

990 Schedule O, Supplemental Information

Return Reference	Explanation
Form 990, PART VI, Line 11b, 990 review process	Once the 990 is prepared for signature, it is provided to the Board of Directors for review and feedback, once feedback is received the report is finalized and endorsed by the President of the Board and submitted to the IRS
Form 990, Part VI, Line 12C, Conflict of Interest Policy	Board Members and employees must disclose all financial interest in any property which SourcePoint purchases or has a direct or indirect interest in a supplier, contractor, grantee, consultant or other entity with which SourcePoint does business. Since it is not possible to write a policy that covers all potential conflicts, board members and employees are expected to be alert for, disclose and, where possible avoid situations which might be construed as a conflict of interest. Any possible conflict of interest on the part of any board member should be disclosed to the other board members and made a matter of record, either through an annual procedure or when the interest becomes a matter of board action. Any board member having a conflict of interest or possible conflict of interest should not vote or use his/her personal influence on the matter, and he/she should not be counted a part of a quorum for the meeting for the purpose of this vote. The minutes of the meeting should reflect that a disclosure was made, the abstention from voting and the quorum situation. These restrictions should not be construed as preventing the board member from briefly stating his/her position in the matter, nor from answering pertinent questions of the other board members, his/her knowledge could be of assistance to the deliberation. All board members are required to complete the "Conflict of Interest Statement". This policy will be reviewed by the board annually and all members will be required to complete and sign a "Conflict of Interest Statement" during orientation and all members will be required to complete and sign a "Conflict of Interest Statement" during orientation.
Form 990, Part VI, Line 19, Documents available to the Public	The organizations governing documents and conflict of interest policy are available upon request. The organizations audited financial statements, tax returns, annual report and inspection reports are all available to the public on its website.
Form 990, Part XII, Line 2C, Audit Oversight	The organization has an audit committee, comprised of members of the board of directors that oversees the selection of the Independent Audit Firm and meets annually with the Audit firm at the conclusion of the Audit. In addition the Audit is reviewed annually by the Auditor of States office.
Form 990, Part VI, Line 15A, compensation of top management official	Annually, the executive committee of the board of directors serves as a committee to review the executive directors performance and compensation. As part of the performance appraisal process, the committee seeks the input of all board members and compiles a report which is presented to the full board. The committee annually reviews compensation data from outside sources, such as the national data from GuideStar and state data from the Ohio Association of Non-Profit Organizations (OANO), as well as the Ohio Department of Jobs and Family Services Labor Market Index. The committee does this review independent of the executive director and makes a report and recommendation to the full board in executive session with the participation of the executive director. Upon the approval of the full board, a compensation offer is made for the following year, and, if accepted the executive directors employment agreement is amended accordingly.
