Part III

Statement of Program Service Accomplishments (see the instructions for Part III)

Check if the organization used Schedule O to respond to any question in this Part III

What is the organization's primary exempt purpose?
To collect funds in order to provide advanced police officer training to its members and to provide funds to assist police departments with the purchase of new police dogs. Additionally, the organization provides monies to offset the cost of veterinary treatment for retired police dogs. To unite, in common cause, all law enforcement agencies utilizing the services of the canine as an aid in the prevention and detection of crime. To promote friendship and brotherhood among those interested in the training and the utilization of the canine in police work. To improve the abilities of the canine in police work, thereby rendering better service to the community. To utilize association funds to improve the efficiency of canine teams by providing training to canine officers and their canines through courses and seminars available to the membership. To coordinate the exchange of ideas of any advanced training techniques utilizing police dogs. To improve the abilities and the image of the working police dog.

Describe the organization's program service accomplishments for each of its three largest program services, as measured by expenses. In a clear and concise manner, describe the services provided, the number of persons benefited, and other relevant information for each program title.
