commonly controlled organizations listed in Schedule R

Part I Line 3 - Responsibility for determining and recommending executive compensation rests with the Joint Personnel Committee of the Fisher-Titus Medical Center and Norwalk Area Health Systems, Inc (NAHS) boards. The committee retains an independent executive compensation consultant to help establish cash compensation target ranges and identify reasonable and customary benefit programs for executives. The independent consultant reports to the Joint Personnel Committee on relevant peer groups, cash compensation reported in available salary surveys for the peer group and trends in perquisite programs customarily available among the peer group for executives. Recommendations by the consultant are presented to the Joint Personnel Committee which prepares minutes of its deliberations regarding executive compensation including recommendations that are then provided to each of the Directors of FTMC and NAHS boards. The recommendations to be acted on must be approved by the Joint Personnel Committee and then by the Medical Center's Board of Directors and finally by the Systems Board of Directors. The minutes of each board meeting where such action is taken reflect such action. This is done annually and was last done in May 2015.
