| Schedule D, Part III, Line 1aCollections of art - financialstatement footnote                | The collections, which were acquired through purchases and contributions since the organization's inception, are not recognized as assets on the statement of financial position. Purchases of collection items are recorded as decreases in unrestricted net assets in the year in which the items are acquired or as temporarily or permanently restricted net assets if the assets used to purchase the items are restricted by donors. Contributed collection items are not reflected on the financial statements. Proceeds from deaccessions or insurance recoveries are reflected as increases in the appropriate net asset classes. The Museum's collections are made up of artifacts of historical significance, scientific specimens, and art objects that are held for educational, research, scientific, and curatorial purposes. Each of the items is cataloged, preserved, and cared for, and activities verifying their existence and assessing their condition are performed continuously. Collection items are subject to a policy that requires proceeds from their sales to be used to acquire other items for collections.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                            |
| Schedule D, Part III, Line 4Collections of art - description ofcollections                   | Unlike most museums created for children, The Children's Museum of Indianapolis, Inc. maintains a collection. It is one of the largest and most comprehensive collection of any youth museum in the world, consisting of approximately 120,000 artifacts. The Museum collects significant artifacts and specimens to use in exhibitions and their educational programs, and preserves those artifacts, specimens, and their contextual information for future generations of children and their families. Collections are divided into three principal areas of interest or domains: American Experience (which included a growing African American collection of artifacts), World Cultures, and Natural World.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         |
| Schedule D, Part V, Line 4 Intendeduses of endowment funds                                       | The Children's Museum of Indianapolis, Inc. uses the temporarily and permanently restricted portion of the endowment consistent with the donor's restriction. The unrestricted portion of the endowment is used to provide a relatively predictable, stable, and in real terms, constant stream of current income for annual operating needs based on the board of directors' approval.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  |
| Schedule D, Part X, Line 2 FIN 48(ASC 740) footnote                                              | The Museum is exempt from federal income taxes under Section 501(c)(3) of the U.S. Internal Revenue Code (IRC) and is not considered to be a private museum. Sidney LLC and TRex LLC are single member LLC's whose single member is exempt from federal income taxes under Section 501(c)(3) of the IRC. The following non-income taxes were paid or remitted by the Museum and consolidating entities in 2015 and 2014: property taxes of $44,000 and $63,000 and sales taxes collected and remitted of $162,000 and $160,000, respectively. As of December 31, 2015 and 2014, the Museum has recorded a tax liability of $100,000 in relation to unrelated business income taxes. The tax expense is recorded in net investment returns on the Statement of Activities. Current accounting standards require the Museum to disclose the amount of potential benefit or obligation to be realized as a result of an examination performed by a taxing authority. For the years ended December 31, 2015 and 2014, management has determined that the Museum does not have any tax positions that result in any uncertainties regarding the possible impact on the Museum's financial statements. The Museum does not expect the total amount of unrecognized tax benefits to significantly change in the next 12 months. The Museum recognizes interest and/or penalties related to income tax matters in income tax expense. The Museum did not have any amounts accrued for interest and penalties at December 31, 2015 and 2014. |

| Schedule I, Part I, Line 2Procedures for monitoring use of grant funds | The Children's Museum of Indianapolis, Inc awards scholarships to several individuals throughout the year. An independent committee reviews all scholarship applications and selects the recipients. Employees of The Children's Museum of Indianapolis, Inc and their families are ineligible to receive scholarships. Once the recipients are chosen, the organization monitors the use of grant funds by paying scholarships directly to the recipients' educational institutions of choice. |

| Form 990, Part VI, Line 12cConflict of interest policy | A conflict of interest policy is in place that applies to all Trustees, Distinguished Advisors, Honorary Trustees, committee members, employees and volunteers. A conflict of interest statement is signed annually by Trustees, Distinguished Advisors, Honorary Trustees, committee members, and upper management employees. Once the conflict of interest statements are signed, they are reviewed by in-house legal counsel for potential or actual conflicts of interest. At all times, all persons who have an actual or potential conflict of interest are required to disclose it - Trustees, Distinguished Advisors, Honorary Trustees and committee members make such disclosure to the Board of Trustees, employees and volunteers make such disclosure to the VP of Human Resources, who then contacts the Museum's CEO and the Board Chair. Before any transaction involving a potential conflict of interest may occur, the Board of Trustees is required to determine whether an actual conflict of interest exists and, if so, whether a more advantageous transaction or arrangement is reasonably attainable under circumstances not producing a conflict of interest, and whether the proposed transaction is in the Museum's best interest, is for the Museum's own benefit, and is fair and reasonable. The interested person may not participate in the Board's discussion or decision regarding the potential conflict. Conflicts of interest discovered once a transaction is in process will be addressed by the Board as soon as possible, and the interested person may be subject to discipline, including termination, for failure to disclose the conflict in a timely manner. |

| Form 990, Part VI, Line 15aProcess to establish compensation of top management official | At the end of calendar year 2014, the Board Compensation Committee engaged two separate external independent firms as counsel to conduct a customized salary assessment and market analysis for the total compensation of the President &amp; CEO and to assist with the development of an employment agreement for the President &amp; CEO. The Committee engaged Quatt Associates (Quatt) and Price Waterhouse Coopers (PWC). The recommendations and feedback were taken under advisement by the Committee. The market analysis process involved, a review of the executive's current compensation and responsibilities, determination of a specific marketplace of comparative organizations, market analysis of the comparable peer group and finally, Quatt and PWC submitted specific recommendations for both base and variable pay adjustment for the CEO position. In addition, the Board conducted the annual performance assessment for the CEO. That process involved the following: The CEO provided an outline of his accomplishments for the prior year to the Compensation Committee. He recommended a list of staff members and others to participate in the confidential survey of his performance, conducted by the Compensation Committee. The Committee distributed the same survey to all Board of Trustee members. The survey results were compiled by the Chair of the Board, in confidence. The Chair shared a synopsis of the feedback with the members of the Compensation Committee (The Compensation Committee is comprised of either Officers of the Board of Trustees and /or past Chairs of the Board of Trustees). Subsequently, the Compensation Committee made a compensation recommendation which was shared with the Executive Committee of the Board of Trustees for approval. The Executive Committee then approved the recommendation of the Compensation Committee. This occurred in March of 2015 (The new rate was retroactive to January 1, 2015). The decision was reported to the full Board of Trustees, in private Executive session, this occurred on May 19, 2015. The Compensation Committee with the approval of the Executive Committee executed an employment agreement on December 2, 2014. |
