1

Briefly describe the organization's mission

To serve the financially-related needs of our diverse membership while maintaining a sound, member-owned association. The credit Union returns the profits to its members in the form of lower loan rates, higher savings rates and free or low cost services. The credit union brings financial services to people who are unable to obtain them elsewhere or as a valuable alternative to the traditions for-profit banking system. The credit union receives deposit from and makes loans to its members primarily located in the Indiana counties of Blackford, Grant, Delaware, Madison and Miami. The majority of its loans are collateralized by specific items, including consumer assets, residential real estate, and member share balances.

Return Reference	Explanation
Schedule D, Part X, Line 2 FIN 48 (ASC 740) footnote	A tax position is recognized as a benefit only if it is "more likely than not" that the tax position would be sustained in a tax examination, with a tax examination being presumed to occur. The amount recognized is the largest amount of tax benefit that is greater than 50% likely of being realized on examination. For tax positions not meeting the "more likely than not" test, no tax benefit is recorded. The effect of adopting this new guidance was not significant to the Credit Union's financial statements. The Credit Union recognizes interest and/or penalties related to income tax matters in income tax expense.
