The House of Delegates also considers the annual reports of the Board of Trustees and acts on resolutions and recommendations contained in the reports. Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 11	The Board of Trustees, being the administrative governing body of the Association, is responsible for the review of the annual Form 990 filing. The Finance and Audit Committee of the Board of Trustees, consisting of 5 of the 11 Board members, reviews the filing annually when they meet with the outside public accounting firm to review the prior year's financial statement audit. The Association's General Counsel reviews all disclosure statements, and reports any items of potential concern to the Executive Director. Once disclosure has been made, the Association Committee/Agency on which such individual serves may proceed to take action with or without the interested member. If, in the opinion of the chair of the committee/agency or the president, a member has a direct conflict of interest, that member shall abstain from any agency vote or action related to the subject of the conflict. The Association's Executive Director is responsible for sharing conflict of interest disclosures with the President or chair. Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 15	The five members of the Executive Committee of the Board of Trustees review and approve all compensation decisions affecting the Executive Director. On an annual basis, the Executive Committee reviews the Executive Director's performance goals that were established for the review period, and whether or not each goal was achieved and to what level. For key employees, the Executive Committee reviews similar information that has been reviewed and approved by the Executive Director in consultation with the manager of Human Resources. Every three years, the Association hires an outside independent consultant who reviews all staff position descriptions and benchmark data compiled from other Association compensation data from similar organizations. Following this review, the consultant provides salary ranges for each member of the Association staff. Ranges for the Executive Director and key employees are shared with the Executive Committee to provide the necessary framework to make compensation decisions. The Executive Committee also receives comparative compensation data for CEO/Executive Director and all other relevant positions that has been compiled by the American Society of Association Executives (national data), and their local chapter, the Association Forum of Chicago. Formal meeting minutes of the Executive Committee's deliberations are compiled and filed.
