There is only one class of membership within the credit union. Organization and trust accounts are allowed with ownership specifically tied back to the individual. The only organization accounts allowed within the bylaws of Alliant are not for profit entities and/or associations. For purposes of voting, each full share ($5) is afforded one vote with respect to regular shares. Therefore, individual accounts can have multiple votes based upon the value of the account relative to individual full $5 increments. For trust and organizational accounts, each account is afforded one vote no matter the dollar amount of the account.
