Return Reference	Explanation
Part V, Line 4	TO SUPPORT THE GENERAL OPERATIONS WHEN NEEDED
Part X, Line 2	The Organization is exempt from income tax under provisions of Internal Revenue Code Section 501 (c)(3). The accounting standard that refers to accounting for uncertainty in income taxes addresses the determination of how tax benefits claimed or expected to be claimed on a tax return should be recorded on the financial statements. Organizations must recognize the tax benefit from an uncertain tax position only if it is more likely than not that the tax position will be sustained on examination by the taxing authorities, based on the technical merits of the position. The standard also provides guidance on derecognition, classification, interest and penalties on income taxes, and accounting in interim periods, and requires increased disclosure. The evaluated potential exposure related to uncertain tax positions was found to be immaterial. The Organization is subject to routine audits by taxing jurisdictions, however, there are currently no audits for any tax periods in progress. With few exceptions, the Organization is no longer subject to income tax examinations by tax authorities for years before 2012.
