Return Reference	Explanation
Part IV, Line 2b	The Association acts as the custodian for funds of members for the purpose of facilitating transactions at the discretion of those members in the amount of $708,709 for the year ending December 31, 2015. The Association entered into an agreement to act as the billing agent on behalf of members with respect to the Energy Optimization program mandated by Michigan Public Act 295 of 2008. The Association acts strictly in an agency capacity and therefore no revenue or expense is reflected in the financial statements under this program.
Part X, Line 2	A tax-exempt status was granted to the Association by the Internal Revenue Service in 1978. However, under current tax laws, the Association is liable for federal and state income taxes on advertising and other business income unrelated to its exempt status. The Association has net operating losses related to business income unrelated to its exempt purpose. These net operating losses expire from 2018 through 2034. As of December 31, 2015 and 2014, the unrecognized tax benefit accrual was zero. The Association will recognize future accrued interest and penalties related to unrecognized tax benefits in income tax expense if incurred.

Return Reference	Explanation
Part I, Line 3	The services of the President/CEO are provided to the Association under a management services agreement with Wolverine Power Cooperative, one of its member cooperatives. The filing organization relies on Wolverine Power Cooperative to determine the compensation for the President/CEO. They use a compensation committee, the written employment contract, compensation survey and approval by the board or compensation committee to determine his compensation.
Schedule J, Part II, Column C, Deferred Compensation	The estimated current year increase in the actuarial value of the defined benefit plan is included in other compensation for employees listed in Part II of Schedule J. These amounts do not represent any current year contributions to the plan. They are estimates of the increase in the actuarial value of the plans received from the NRECA. The current year expense and the increase in actuarial value for each employee are reflected in the statement on the Schedule O for Form 990, Part VII, Column F.

Return Reference	Explanation
Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 11	The 990 is received and review ed for accuracy by the Executive Vice President, Reporting Agent and President/CEO Upon approval, it is provided to the entire Board of Directors for its review and discussion, as needed, at a regularly scheduled meeting After any concerns presented by the Board of Directors are addressed, the President/CEO signs and files the return

Return Reference	Explanation
Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 12c	The conflict of interest policy is reviewed annually. All directors are required to disclose any conflicts of interest and to notify the Board of any conflicts that may arise throughout the year. The Board will then determine if a conflict does exist and how to proceed.

Return Reference	Explanation
Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 15	The services of the President/CEO are provided to the Association under a management services agreement with one of its member cooperatives. This management services agreement outlines the responsibilities and duties of the President/CEO as well as the proposed costs for his services to the Association for the contract term. The current management services contract was approved by the Association's Board of Directors in June 2015 and runs for a two-year period. As the President/CEO is an employee of one of the association's member cooperatives, salary and related compensation is annually reported on the Form 990 of that member cooperative. The annual salary of the President/CEO is set by the member cooperative based upon survey information provided by the National Rural Electric Cooperative Association (NRECA) for similar association positions throughout the country.
