MSA operates its funding to student organizations through a reimbursement process. Registered UM student organizations must apply to MSA for funding events that directly affect the greater UM student/non-student community. All funding is awarded through a reimbursement process where UM student organizations are required to submit authentic proof of payment of applied for and awarded event expenses, and MSA verifies such expenses and reimburses the student organization for the awarded and approved expenses. MSA retains all student organization funding applications and expense proof of payments for up to 5 to 7 years.
