Return Reference	Explanation
Part I-A, Line 1	The Association of Commerce maintains a high degree of interest in the activities of federal, state and local legislative bodies on matters that concern the business community. If an issue is deemed important to the business community the Association of Commerce will monitor the activity associated with that issue and may communicate directly with elected officials regarding our position on the matter. On the local level, the Association of Commerce has been even more active by interviewing candidates for the City Council and finding donors to fund paid advertising to promote those candidates that are deemed more likely to support business related positions on various issues.
