During 2015, 1,389 people were served via employment services, 394 through supported employment Goodwill operated four Workforce Connection Centers during 2015 providing free job search and support services to the general public, regardless of income or other qualifying criteria These centers were developed to help individuals who are unemployed or underemployed find and keep jobs Workforce Connection Center staff provide assistance throughout the job search process, including resume development, job applications, computer access, job-search strategies, and access to resources needed to sustain employment The Workforce Connection Centers host several employer on-site events each month to connect job-seekers with employers in need of workers Goodwill also collaborates with other local organizations to connect center customers to additional resources, including driver's license recovery programs, counseling, benefits assistance, and help with housing and other concerns Together, these centers provided services to 15,308 people in 2015 Similar Goodwill-operated centers in Racine and Kenosha served an additional 4,392 people Goodwill has been a partner since 1989 in the Kenosha County Job Center, one of Wisconsin's first urban job centers, considered "best practice" on both a national and international level At the Job Center, Goodwill offers extensive employment services that include job seeking and retention, life skills and parenting workshop sessions, work experience opportunities, one-on-one consultation, mentoring and follow-up Case management services include assessment, development of employability plans, referrals for agency services and adult education, counseling, job seeking skills and job search Goodwill's Work Services program provides skill development, work experience and on-site paid employment for persons with severe and multiple disabilities or who may have various cognitive barriers to employment One of the goals of this prevocational services program is to help individuals with disabilities prepare for integrated community employment This program combines training with hands-on experience in high-speed packaging, assembly, inspection, and secure document destruction During 2015, Work Services provided services to 274 individuals with disabilities at two facilities in Milwaukee County Workforce Development Supports In 2015, Goodwill provided Workforce Development Supports for 4,965 individuals These supports included benefits counseling, ancillary vocational services (financial literacy and tax preparation services), and other work-related supports such as child care case management Supportive Services Goodwill provided Supportive Services in 2015 to 22,762 adults and seniors through a variety of programs Goodwill's Day Services support adults and seniors with developmental disabilities to enjoy more independent and active lives in the community at five locations Goodwill adult and senior centers offer daily activities including community outings, recreation and socialization with others, volunteering, enhancing life skills, and promoting self-advocacy Programs also offer peace of mind as well as respite for working care givers Life Skills Development targets younger adults and is intended as a skill-building bridge to employment programs During 2015, 421 individuals were served by Goodwill's Day Service programs and life skills development programs Goodwill's Community Services help improve the quality of life for seniors and their families Community Services provides support for people who find it difficult to work or cannot participate in Goodwill's employment programs due to increasing age or poor health Goodwill offers programs that assist seniors in maintaining their independence, with the goal of decreasing premature and unnecessary institutionalization These programs include Case Management, Home Delivered Meals/Meal-Site Supervision, and the Foster Grandparent Program The Case Management unit provides long-term care management (intake, assessment, planning for service delivery, ongoing support to members and their families, and case monitoring) for 5,041 people who have physical or developmental disabilities or are frail elders During 2015, Goodwill's Home Delivered Meals and Meal Site programs served Milwaukee County senior citizens with 339,351 meals delivered to their homes and more than 105,444 meals served at 11 congregate meal sites Goodwill's team at the Kenosha County Job Center provides a number of other supportive services, including coordinating the volunteer guardianship program, partnering with other agencies to address the acute staffing shortages of long-term care workers serving the elderly and individuals with disabilities, and a number of community outreach programs Through the Adult Protective Services program, Goodwill provides intervention for at-risk physically disabled and elderly persons by identifying cases of physical abuse, neglect, financial abuse or self-neglect In 2015, 5,151 people in the Kenosha area received assistance from the Holiday House program, which provides winter coats, toys, and holiday food baskets to needy families Goodwill TalentBridge, LLC Goodwill's own recruiting and staffing service, Goodwill TalentBridge, is the latest element in Goodwill's workforce development platform Thousands of people come to Goodwill each year looking for jobs - through the Workforce Connection Centers, traditional employment and training programs, the Human Resources department, TalentBridge, and other avenues Goodwill's goal is to develop a seamless process to enable people to approach Goodwill for assistance, be assessed, directed to the appropriate resources or training, and ultimately connected to employment TalentBridge's critical role is to cultivate employer relationships and build partnerships with employers that result in increased job placement opportunities TalentBrdge is Goodwill's link to connect workforce talent to workplace opportunity In 2015, Goodwill TalentBridge issued 4,032 W-2s and paid $16 2 million in wages, in large part to individuals who had previously been un- or under-employed TalentBrdge offers employers a wide range of solutions and services, including contract employment, contract to hire, direct placement, and recruitment process outsourcing TalentBridge provides job placement in an array of industries, including manufacturing and industrial, healthcare, finance and banking, professional and administrative, call center, culinary and food service

Return Reference	Explanation
Liability for Accounting for Uncertainty in Income Taxes	PART X Goodwill Industries of Southeastern Wisconsin, Inc , Goodwill Industries of Metropolitan Chicago, Inc and Goodwill Retail Services, Inc have received determination letters from the Internal Revenue Service indicating that they are exempt from federal income taxes except for taxes pertaining to unrelated business income under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue. Goodwill TalentBridge LLC has been organized as a limited liability company and, accordingly, is not subject to federal or state income taxes. All income tax attributes of the entity are passed through to its sole member, Goodwill Industries of Southeastern Wisconsin, Inc. The entity is included in the consolidated information return filed by Goodwill Industries of Southeastern Wisconsin, Inc. The Financial Accounting Standards Board (FASB) issued guidance related to the uncertainty of income tax positions, which clarifies the accounting for uncertainty in income taxes recognized in an organization's financial statements and requires additional disclosure. Goodwill recognizes the financial statement benefit of a tax position only after determining that the relevant tax authority would more-likely-than-not sustain the position following an audit. For tax positions meeting the more-likely-than-not threshold, the amount recognized in the financial statements is the largest benefit that has a greater than 50 percent likelihood of being realized upon ultimate settlement with the relevant tax authority. Goodwill files information returns in the U S Federal and the states of Wisconsin and Illinois jurisdictions. Tax years open under the Federal statute of limitations include 2012 through 2015. Tax years open under state of Wisconsin and state of Illinois statutes include 2011 through 2015.
