| Part V, Line 4   | The endowment funds are used to support the Academy's Dermatological Academic, Philanthropic, and Strategic program expenses. EACH FUND AND ITS RELATED PURPOSE IS DESCRIBED BELOW. Camp Discovery - Formed in 1993, the Camp Discovery fund is used to support 6 camps each summer. These offer children the opportunity to spend a week among other young people who have similar serious skin conditions, such as their own. Many of the counselors also have serious skin conditions, and can provide support and advice to campers. Excellence in Dermatology - This endowment fund is to ensure the Academy's long-term ability to promote dermatology by supporting AAD Board-approved programs/projects in the areas of public and medical education, health policy, research and humanitarian support. Sulzberger - The Sulzberger Institute for Dermatologic Education is the arm of the American Academy of Dermatology that provides grant support for innovative initiatives in education and technology. Grants typically provide seed funds to help dermatologists begin projects that can eventually improve patient care. World Congress of Dermatology Fund - Established in 1993 from the surplus of the 18th World Congress, the fund is used to support the travel of young people from developing countries to attend the Academy's Annual Meeting, and for young dermatologists from the U.S. to attend meetings in other countries. Lila Gruber Fund - The fund, established by Murray Gruber in 1983, is used to support the annual Marion B. Sulzberger, MD Memorial award and lectureship. Young Investigators Award - The purpose of this fund, established in 1995, is to institute a special award to recognize residents and residency programs which have contributed to research in the field of dermatology. The award will honor outstanding research by dermatologists in training in the U.S. and Canada, and the educational institutions which have supported their efforts. PICMED - The fund, established in 2003, is used exclusively to support the activities of PICMED (Program for Innovative Continuing Medical Education in Dermatology). These activities include creative needs assessment mechanisms, innovative uses of technology, unique approaches to specific subject matter, novel presentation techniques and utilization of existing educational paradigms in new environments. |

AAD is an association representing approximately 19,000 Dermatologists, who become members of the Academy. The Academy has ten classes of members but only Fellows and Life and Honorary members who were Fellows are eligible to vote and serve in any elective office. Members annually elect the President to a three year term as President elect, President, and Past President and Vice-President to two year term as Vice-President elect and Vice President. Additionally, members also elect four Directors to serve a four year term. Proposed amendments to the by-laws by the Board of Directors are subject to approval by the membership.

| Form 990,Part VI,Section B,line 12c | Officers, directors, committee members, editors, speakers, and key employees are annually required to complete a conflict of interest disclosure statement as a precursor to their service to the organization. Detailed below is the Disclosure process. Disclosure Process 1 The individuals covered are required to electronically submit a disclosure statement acknowledging a duty to serve the Academy in good faith and with undivided loyalty. These individuals are to describe all personal or professional circumstances which might create a potential conflict of interest with the interests of the Academy. Accompanying this policy statement as Exhibit A is a sample copy of such a disclosure statement. Members who do not submit a yearly conflict of interest disclosure, may lose the right to hold office and serve in the governance structure and, except in unusual circumstances approved in advance by the Board of Directors, to participate in Academy programs as a faculty member, presenter, or scientific exhibit contributor. Review Process 1 Officers, directors, chairs and members of councils, committees, and task forces, the editors of JAAD and senior staff will submit their statements directly onto the academy website with oversight by the Secretary-Treasurer. 2 The statements are provided at every committee meeting to all committee members. If necessary, the chairmen will forward those that appear to have conflicts which could prevent them from serving to the Secretary-Treasurer with any relevant observations or recommendations. 3 The Secretary-Treasurer will review all statements submitted for further review and if necessary will forward to the Ethics Committee, while at the same time informing the Board of Directors of any conflicts that appear especially significant. If further clarification is needed the Ethics Committee will utilize the Academy Oversight Committee. 4 The Ethics Committee will review and initiate any request for further information and promptly prepare a report to the Secretary-Treasurer regarding its findings. The Secretary-Treasurer will report to the Board of Directors on any items found by the Committee to be of special significance. All electronic disclosure statements will be retained on the Academy server. They will be available electronically for review by members of the Board of Directors and staff, and upon request by Academy members. They will be available to the council, committee and task force members to review prior to all conference calls and meetings. All members filing an annual disclosure statement will be obligated to promptly update any change in circumstances which might give rise to an actual or potential conflict of interest. Members also should verbally disclose and update their conflict of interest form for any relevant conflicts that may occur during a conference call or meeting that do not already appear on the disclosure form. Chairs of councils, committee and task forces are required to include in the summation report any conflict of interests that have been expressed by a member during a meeting or conference call. |

| Form 990,Part VI,Section B,line 15 | The Executive Director It has been standard practice for the Academy to comply with the Internal Revenue Codes Section 4958, following best practices for ensuring compliance and establishing a rebuttable presumption of reasonableness as it relates to compensation. The Academy uses fair market value to determine cash and non-cash compensation for the Executive Director/CEO. Fair market value is based on market data. Market data may be collected from a variety of methods, including published or off the shelves surveys, surveys managed by third party consultants, compensation analysis performed by third party consultants, and surveys managed by a group of organizations. The competitive market is typically defined in terms of revenue and company size. To define competitive market the Academy considers the following as valid resources for comparable market data: Companies with similar operating budget, Companies with roughly same number of employees, and Companies who operate under like circumstances. Compensation decisions are recommended by the Compensation Committee that consists of Independent Officers of the Board of Directors and approved by the Board of Directors. The decisions are based on analysis of comparable Market Data. Other officers or key employees of the organization. Key employees of the organization's compensation are determined in the same fashion of the Executive Director although their compensation decisions are approved by the Executive Director. |
